Homecoming Festivities At Arlington Saturday

The annual homecoming is being celebrated at the high school at Arlington this week. Most of the extra time all week long is being utilized as a build-up for the festivities Friday night and Saturday, climaxing the end of this year's football season. While the records of the teams this year are not outstanding, still the conduct of the boys has been such as to warrant the rallying forces to give them a good send-off in their last game with Niles on Saturday afternoon.

The highlights of the week are the pep session and bonfire Friday night, the game Saturday afternoon, and the Homecoming dance Saturday night. The Friday night pep session is an old established affair and has gradually developed into one of the most anticipated student activities.

The Niles team that furnishes the opposition for Arlington this Saturday is not among the stronger teams of the league, but they have been improving as the season wears on. Like Arlington, they started the season with a well nigh entire untried squad. They are just beginning to find themselves and will be a hard team for the Cardinals to beat. They have a well-balanced attack in that they seem to be equally good at punting and passing. Heiniger is probably the hardest plunging back in the conference. Dahn is quite a capable triple threat artist doing a goodly portion of the running, as well as most of the passing and kicking. Domas is an adept receiver of Dahn's passes. The boys making up the Niles line are fully as large as Arlington's forwards and are plenty aggressive.

An added feature of the game will be the special drills and formations prepared for the homecoming by the high school band. Each home game has seen an increased interest by the fans in the stunts, letters, spirals and various marching formations, and camera enthusiasts have had some real results with the colorful uniforms and the bright instruments.

At the half, the band will march on to the field and salute Niles township high, with a snappy march and form a giant "N" for Niles. After a few cheers by the Arlington cheerleaders, an airplane will be formed at the north end of the field and proceed to the front of the Arlington stands where it will break up into the letters "A. H. S."

A display of the school colors and the singing of the Arlington Loyalty combined with a special stunt will end the band's share in the days festivities.

A pep parade through the business district by the band and the new cheering club, is planned to precede the game.

Saturday night furnishes the first real all school party, combined with the alumni expected to gather for their annual homecoming dance. An out of town orchestra has been hired for the occasion. Dancing will be from 8:30 to 12:00 p. m. All planning on attending are urged to come early since the dance will end at midnight, sharp. This is, as usual, not a "dress-up" dance since it has been found that the absence of all formality has added to the spirit of the occasion. Also, to discourage "stags" the price is to be 50c per couple, or singly, also 50c.

"Tuberculosis is the deadly enemy of us all, but particularly of the youth," states Mrs. Allen. "The preventive program is as important as that of cure. We call upon every citizen of Arlington Heights to cooperate in the Christmas seal campaign that our homes and families may be safe."

Other members of the committee responsible for getting this sale on its way are Mrs. Chas. Fitzpatrick and Mrs. V. A. Sturm.

Arlington Merchants Meet Wheaton Sunday

Arlington Merchants will play Wheaton Giants this Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Arlington Recreation Park. The boys were no less disappointed last Sunday than the crowd that the team scheduled for the afternoon did not put in their appearnce. However, an afternoon of practice provided some of the fans themselves with a few stiff joints for the balance of the week.

Robert Utpadel Third Member Draft Board

Robert M. Utpadel, of Wheeling is the third member of the draft board for district one of Cook county. He received his appointment by telegraph this week and reported at the Arlington Heights office Monday evening. Geo. W. Howes, previously appointed, refused the appointment.

The other two members, Victor Pecchia, chairman and D. R. Rippey, secretary, were compelled to organize the board before the third member of the board was known. They had set in motion the local draft machinery and had the names and numbers posted on the bulletin board Saturday morning.

Large crowds gathered before the bulletin board hunting for individual names from the list of 2400. It is no easy task.

Following an instruction meeting Thursday evening, the master number drawn at Washington will be placed on the original regigstration cards. These numbers designate the order in which questionnaires will be mailed to draftees and the order in which they will be called into service.

The law does not make it the duty of the draft board to report numbers to the draftees; the latter are expected to find their own.

Receipt of the questionnaire is the first notice that a registrant will receive that his name is among the first eligible for service.

Frank O. Smith is the clerk in charge of the district office at Arlington Heights.

When asked regarding the first quota that would be assigned to the local district, Secretary Rippey stated that there is a possibility that there would be sufficient voluntary enlistments to fill the quota of the first call.

Palatine's Lost Battalion

Palatine makes another bid for fame. Now its the lost battalion of the recent draftees.

Somehow or other the cards of the boys who registered in precincts No. 1 and 2 in Palatine got lost in the shuffle and those fellows haven't got any number assigned to them and are running around in circles wondering what to do next.

There doesn't seem to be anything they can do until the last cards are found or they are reregistered or something happens.

Just where the cards of the lost battalion have gone to is the mystery that no one can explain.

George Howes, supervisor of the draft in Palatine township turned over the cards at the Morton Grove highway police station and took his receipt.

Where they went from there no one knows.

The other three precincts in Palatine township got through all right and the boys were assigned numbers, but the boys of the lost battalion will apparently simply save to sit tight until something happens.

Smashes Light Pole, Smashes Car; Bumps Nose

Robert Weat of Chicago while driving east on Calfax st., Palatne in a dense fog Sunday morning, ran off the road at the bend west of Garre's Oil station and crashed into an electric light pole.

The pole was snapped completely off disrupting service for some time, badly smashing the auto and leaving Mr. Weat with a few cuts on the head and a sprained left wrist.

From the looks of the car following the accident it would appear that Mr. Weat was exceedingly lucky to escape with the minor injuries which he sustained.

Letter From England Tells Horrors There

Populace Becoming Reconciled To War Happenings

Mr. and Mrs. John Allen, Arlington Heights, received this week a letter from English relatives that reveal some of the horror that is faced by those whose homes are in the path of the German bombers.

As the letter mentions towns and communities of which the reader is not familiar this paper is making no attempt to publish the letter verbatim, but the extracts printed below give an excellent idea of what is happening in England.

"I wonder what you have thought of all the things that have been happening here, in Belgium and France . . . traitors must have been everywhere . . . the Channel island . . . the Germans are right on our doorstep, as it were. London has had a bad time and we have had more than a taste of it . . . Wednesday afternoon we saw one plane go, come back, and heard bombs fall; three people were killed . . . a fortnight ago six people were killed in the adjoining town.

"Recently, we had two air raid warnings; one at 9:15, which did not last long and we went to bed at 11:15; then the sirens went again; after one o'clock, hearing nothing, we decided to go to bed again . . . when the terrible whistling noise and then the bombs . . . and down we came again, which was just past four . . . I have slept under the stars the past month and am very comfortable.

"Last Sunday there was a very bad raid, the Germans gunning the roads, killing seven people . . . the guns from one plane killed 29 people . . . we were very shocked as there is no military objective here.

"We had an exciting time last week . . . we heard the planes overhead and felt a little nervous as they were very low . . . presently, bang went our guns and down came a plane in flames . . . one of the crew hanging head downwards from a parachute and was killed on a cliff . . . another plane fell in the road, three were killed and a fourth fell in the sea and was taken prisoner.

"On Friday we saw 15 planes coming over, then our aircraft began and we saw two come down . . . seven were shot down in this vicinity. One can't work with that thundering noise overhead . . . we hear many bombs drop in the silence of the night and plenty of green fire . . . all the windows shake . . . but we are getting used to it and it does not keep us awake . . . we have a lot to be thankful for . . . 25 of our Baptist churches have been bombed flat.

"We are all devoutly wishing this war was over, but we can't see the end of it. Have you been rationed yet? We have now two ounces of butter a week, half pound sugar, two ounces of tea. Still matters are no worse than in the last war.

"Work here is absolutely at a standstill, except government work and that is not much . . . many shops are closing . . . over 1,000 shops are empty. Plenty of soldiers everywhere . . . tanks, lorries and everything spells war."

John and his brother, Sidney Allen, were born in England, which was their home until after they were 21 years old. Their home town and from which the above letter was written is on the south of England opposite the Isle of Wright.

Do Not Burn Leaves On Streets

The attention of householders is called to the fact that it is illegal to burn leaves or light fires on the streets of the village of Arlington Heights. Village officers are unable to give personal warnings to all who attempt to dispose of their leaves by that method and it has become necessary to instruct the police officers to arrest all violators.

IERC Surplus Commodities Arrive by the Ton

The relief clients in Cook county were made extremely happy on the surplus commodity distribution day last week when greatly increased quantities of commodities were handed out.

Better grades of fruits than ever before, finer potatoes and even hams and meats were on the list much to the surprise of the clients.

Nineteen thousand pounds of goods were delivered to Wheeling township last week. A large amount was also delivered to St. James and the Lutheran schools, which have eeen certified as entitled to the use of commodities in the operation of cafeterias. This delivery is about double the usual amount.

Local supervisors received letters early last week advising them that the supply of commodities had been greatly increased and that twenty items were being distributed to each client, an amount so great that the clients could not take them home at one time. Accordingly, deliveries will be twice a month starting November 1st. Gilbert Klehm, Wheeling supervisor, has been advised that deliveries this month will be the 15th and the 28th. December deliveries will be Dec. 12th and 27th.

Over a hundred families in Wheeling township comprising those on relief, old age and the blind pensioners, receive the commodities, which consist of potatoes, peas, oranges, onions, cabbage, apples, canner apple sauce, rice, raisins, salt pork, corn meal, lard, smoked ham, graham flour, wheat meal, wheat flour, eggs, bacon, lima beans.

Des Plaines Banker's Son Killed At N-W Railroad Crossing

David Schulze, 11 years old, son of Edwin H. Schulze, vice-president of the First National bank of Des Plaines, was killed Monday afternoon, when he rode his bicycle into the path of a North Western train at the Graceland avenue crossing in Des Plaines.

A watchman was on duty at the crossing but the boy's view was obscured by an automobile which had stopped to wait for the train to pass. The watchman claims that he waved to the boy to stop. In attempting to do so, his bicycle skidded onto the tracks, a wheel catching sideways in the crossing. David was unable to extricate himself before being struck.

The funeral is being held Thursday at 2:30 at Congregational church. A verdict of accidental death was rendered by the coroner's jury Tuesday morning, which recommended that gates or some other mechanical device be installed at all railroad crossings in Des Plaines.

Arriving, they are introduced to all the children of Mother Goose and the Old Woman in the Shoe, Little Bo Peep, Contrary Mary, Jack and Jill, and all the other characters, as well as Contrary Mary's Flower Garden performs for the children. Realizing the great interest of the registrants in the draft numbers assigned to them, Paddock Publications is publishing this week the registration list of district one in Cook county. Copies of the list have been placed in the local postoffice of the six townships.

Consultation of the list appearing in this issue will make unnecessary a trip to Arlington Heights.

As the records did not specify the township in which the registrant resides, addresses given are postoffice addresses as far as possible. In many cases addresses given were by township or communities and not by postoffice. With a little patience, every name can be found.

Those residing in Schaumburg township may receive their mail from four postoffices, viz: Palatine, Roselle, Elgin and Bensenville. A similar condition exists in Elk Grove and other communities.

The numbers given are for record purposes only and do not govern the order in which the men will be called.

FIRST TO BE CALLED

Early published returns in the city press of the first 25 to be called in District One, Cook county, were not correct as many of the numbers appearing in the drawing had not yet been assigned to local registrants. As additional registration cards are received at the draft office subsequent numbers in sequence are assigned to them. As this paper goes to press the highest number assigned is No. 2489. There are still over two hundred cards belonging to Palatine that have not been recorded. When these are given their serial number, twenty-one of them will be properly inserted among the first fifty names which are given below as they appeared among the first 400 numbers drawn in the lottery.

The numbers belonging to the twenty-one Palatine unknown registrants are as follows:

2363, 2698, 2502, 2524, 2684, 2559, 2540, 2514, 2546, 2567, 2510, 2638, 2527, 2657, 2689, 2634, 2570, 2532, 2545, 2648, 2586.

He was in apparent good health when he retired for the night.

Boy Scouts Enjoy Game, Pep Rally At University

More than 500 boy scouts and scouters from the Northwest Suburban council were guests of the Northwestern university last Saturday at the annual boy scout day where they saw the Northwestern-Indiana football game.

For the first time a special program was arranged in addition to the football game and the sigma chapter of the Alpha Phi Omega, a boy scout honorary fraternity, provided a program in the morning which included conducted tours of the campus and a pep rally for boy scouts in Patten gym where K. L. "Tug" Wilson, director of athletics, Tom Robinson, swimming coach, and other athletic celebrities of the university spoke to the scouts and paid tribute to the training which scouting provided.

This annual event is looked forward to every year and is greatly appreciated by all scouts and scouters.

Jack Belding Lunches And Dinners Applauded By Both Parties

Although the Democrats and Republicans are contradicting each other on a score of issues they are in common agreement on one thing and that is that Jack Belding, in charge of the kitchen and dining room at Eddies Castle Bar, Evergreen and Northwest Highway, Arlington Heights, knows how to prepare a tasty lunch on dinner. According to reprts, Jack has a way of making food taste good as well as knowing how to serve it. You are invited to Eddies Castle Bar to enjoy the daily business men's lunch or the special Sunday dinner.

DEMOCRATS TO MEET MONDAY EVENING

Regular meeting of Wheeling Democratic Organization will be held in the field house Monday evening, Nov. 4th. The general public is invited.

Dinner To Start Scout Financial Campaign

The organization of the workers who will canvas the city for funds during the annual finance campaign for the Northwest Suburban Council Boy Scouts of America, November 4 to 18, is progressing rapidly under the leadership of Herman Bauman, general chairman of the campaign. Robert B. Leslie and Charles S. Stewart, council and district chairman of the finance committee and Scout Executive Donald E. Kyger have been assisting in the organization.

Dozens of men and women who realize the benefits scouting and cubbing provides the boys, have volunteered their services during the campaign. They know from past experience, or the experience of others, that they can derive considerable personal satisfaction by lending a hand to such a worthy cause. These workers are being organized into teams and will make a complete house-to-house canvas of Arlington Heights.

The "Kick-Off" dinner for the campaign workers, which inaugurates the campaign, will be held next Monday evening, November 4 at 6:30 o'clock at the north school. Mr. N. A. Carlson, president of the Arlington Heights school board will speak at this meeting and R. B. Leslie will explain the campaign plans to the workers. Scout Executive Donald E. Kyger will present a brief message. Music will be furnished by the north school orchestra.

Because of the rapidly increasing number of cubs and boy scouts each year this campaign becomes a larger and more important task. The following organizations in Arlington Heights are cooperating in this finance campaign: the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, scouters of Troop 5 sponsored by the Merle Guild Post the American Legion, scouters of Troop 7 sponsored by the parents committee; cubbers of Pack 232 sponsored by the Arlington Heights P.-T.A., Presbyterian Men's club, Methodist Mens club, Holy Name Society, Lutheran Laymen League, St. John's church, Parent-Teachers association, Trade and Civic Association, Scarsdale Association and Nurse's club.

The pastors in the community have been invited to the meeting. Troops five and seven have distributed finance campaign folders and window posters. Les Moodies is neighborhood chairman while John Kindler and W. A. Miles are scoutmasters.

Death Causes Postponement Of Democratic Meeting

On account of the death of Dr. Hayden, the meeting of the Wheeling township women's Democratic organization scheduled for Friday at the Homer J. Byrd home, has been postponed. Mrs. Hayden has taken an active part in the women's organization.

All Banks Closed On Election Day

All banks will be closed next Tuesday on account of election day, which is a legal holiday. Patrons are urged to anticipate their needs. The night depository is available for those who have subscribed to that service.

Three Prefer Enlistment To Waiting for Draft

There are three Arlington Heights young men who do not want to wait for the draft to call them into army service. They will enlist at once. In fact their preliminary papers have been forwarded from the local draft board to the recruiting office where the boys have applied.

They are Albert E. Duenn, 22 West Fremont st., William Foley, 301 N. State rd., and John G. Allen, 635 North Highland ave.

Mr. Foley, who is employed by the Northern Trust Bank, first "talked over" his enlistment with officers of the bank who have assured him the same protection as to job and insurance as though he was called by the draft.

John Allen who is self employed as a painter, could not see any reason to hang around awaiting a draft call that might not arrive for a year or more.

Albert Duenn, one of five brothers of draft age, is no stranger to army life as he spent a year in a CCC camp. "It is not so bad" says Albert, "and an enlistment now means that I am fulfilling my obligation to my country when I am a young man and will be free to follow my own desires after my army discharge." He is now employed at the Creamery Package.

Parents of all three boys have taken the stand that there is little for them to say and agree that "it is up to the boys to do what they think best."

Music, One-Act Plays To Be Presented At Arlington High School

The combined music and speech departments of the Arlington Heights township high school will present an evening of music and one-act plays in the high school auditorium Friday evening, November 15 at 8:00 p. m. A complete program of the instrumental and vocal numbers as well as the personnel of the casts for the one-act plays will be included in next week's issue of the Arlington Herald. The proceeds of this entertainment will be used for equipment for the two departments.

Albino Robin Seen In McElhose Yard

On two different occasions last week Mr. James McElhose of Arlington Heights, saw at close range in his yard an albino robin. The bird was all white but for a few black spots on his back, and when discovered by other robins was driven away.

REPUBLICAN HEADQUARTERS OPENED EVENINGS

Starting this evening the Republican headquarters on North Evergreen avenue, opposite Arlington theatre, will be open evenings. The general public is invited to call any time.

ARLINGTON WOMEN KEGLERS' HALLOWE'EN PARTY

Appearing in costume, the usual bowling session was held, but what bowling. Some bowled backwards; others upside down and sideways while the spectators roared. Stunts and Hallowe'en foolishness held the limelight for the evening and it was with difficulty that the Herald staff photographer quieted them long enough to snap the above picture.

Eddie's Hayshakers—Val Hartmann, Emma Timmermann, Gertrude Weinrich, Marge Kastning, L. Pepin.

Mors Half and Halves — Erna Diebold, Deliah Kost, Beatrice Boyles, Dorothy Hauff, Nelda Studtman.

Sadecky's Black Cats—Mildred Porvich, Blanch Weaver, Blanch Winkelman, Elenore Smith, Edna Drewes.

Winkelman's Cats—Lois Klehm, Dorothy Weidner, Mildred Steffen, Peggy Klehm, Tracy Winkelman.

A treasurer hunt followed the bowling, ending with refreshments at Gertrude Weinrichs on Euclid ave.

After a few cheers by the Arlington cheerleaders, an airplane will be formed at the north end of the field and proceed to the front of the Arlington stands where it will break up into the letters "A. H. S."

A display of the school colors and the singing of the Arlington Loyalty combined with a special stunt will end the band's share in the days festivities.

A pep parade through the business district by the band and the new cheering club, is planned to precede the game.

Saturday night furnishes the first real all school party, combined with the alumni expected to gather for their annual homecoming dance. An out of town orchestra has been hired for the occasion. Dancing will be from 8:30 to 12:00 p. m. All planning on attending are urged to come early since the dance will end at midnight, sharp. This is, as usual, not a "dress-up" dance since it has been found that the absence of all formality has added to the spirit of the occasion. Also, to discourage "stags" the price is to be 50c per couple, or singly, also 50c.

Other members of the committee responsible for getting this sale on its way are Mrs. Chas. Fitzpatrick and Mrs. V. A. Sturm.

Arlington Merchants Meet Wheaton Sunday

Arlington Merchants will play Wheaton Giants this Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Arlington Recreation Park. The boys were no less disappointed last Sunday than the crowd that the team scheduled for the afternoon did not put in their appearnce. However, an afternoon of practice provided some of the fans themselves with a few stiff joints for the balance of the week.

Robert Utpadel Third Member Draft Board

Robert M. Utpadel, of Wheeling is the third member of the draft board for district one of Cook county. He received his appointment by telegraph this week and reported at the Arlington Heights office Monday evening. Geo. W. Howes, previously appointed, refused the appointment.

The other two members, Victor Pecchia, chairman and D. R. Rippey, secretary, were compelled to organize the board before the third member of the board was known. They had set in motion the local draft machinery and had the names and numbers posted on the bulletin board Saturday morning.

Large crowds gathered before the bulletin board hunting for individual names from the list of 2400. It is no easy task.

Following an instruction meeting Thursday evening, the master number drawn at Washington will be placed on the original regigstration cards. These numbers designate the order in which questionnaires will be mailed to draftees and the order in which they will be called into service.

The law does not make it the duty of the draft board to report numbers to the draftees; the latter are expected to find their own.

Receipt of the questionnaire is the first notice that a registrant will receive that his name is among the first eligible for service.

Frank O. Smith is the clerk in charge of the district office at Arlington Heights.

When asked regarding the first quota that would be assigned to the local district, Secretary Rippey stated that there is a possibility that there would be sufficient voluntary enlistments to fill the quota of the first call.

Palatine's Lost Battalion

Palatine makes another bid for fame. Now its the lost battalion of the recent draftees.

Somehow or other the cards of the boys who registered in precincts No. 1 and 2 in Palatine got lost in the shuffle and those fellows haven't got any number assigned to them and are running around in circles wondering what to do next.

There doesn't seem to be anything they can do until the last cards are found or they are reregistered or something happens.

Just where the cards of the lost battalion have gone to is the mystery that no one can explain.

George Howes, supervisor of the draft in Palatine township turned over the cards at the Morton Grove highway police station and took his receipt.

Where they went from there no one knows.

The other three precincts in Palatine township got through all right and the boys were assigned numbers, but the boys of the lost battalion will apparently simply save to sit tight until something happens.

Smashes Light Pole, Smashes Car; Bumps Nose

Robert Weat of Chicago while driving east on Calfax st., Palatne in a dense fog Sunday morning, ran off the road at the bend west of Garre's Oil station and crashed into an electric light pole.

The pole was snapped completely off disrupting service for some time, badly smashing the auto and leaving Mr. Weat with a few cuts on the head and a sprained left wrist.

From the looks of the car following the accident it would appear that Mr. Weat was exceedingly lucky to escape with the minor injuries which he sustained.

Letter From England Tells Horrors There

Populace Becoming Reconciled To War Happenings

Mr. and Mrs. John Allen, Arlington Heights, received this week a letter from English relatives that reveal some of the horror that is faced by those whose homes are in the path of the German bombers.

As the letter mentions towns and communities of which the reader is not familiar this paper is making no attempt to publish the letter verbatim, but the extracts printed below give an excellent idea of what is happening in England.

"I wonder what you have thought of all the things that have been happening here, in Belgium and France . . . traitors must have been everywhere . . . the Channel island . . . the Germans are right on our doorstep, as it were. London has had a bad time and we have had more than a taste of it . . . Wednesday afternoon we saw one plane go, come back, and heard bombs fall; three people were killed . . . a fortnight ago six people were killed in the adjoining town.

"Recently, we had two air raid warnings; one at 9:15, which did not last long and we went to bed at 11:15; then the sirens went again; after one o'clock, hearing nothing, we decided to go to bed again . . . when the terrible whistling noise and then the bombs . . . and down we came again, which was just past four . . . I have slept under the stars the past month and am very comfortable.

"Last Sunday there was a very bad raid, the Germans gunning the roads, killing seven people . . . the guns from one plane killed 29 people . . . we were very shocked as there is no military objective here.

"We had an exciting time last week . . . we heard the planes overhead and felt a little nervous as they were very low . . . presently, bang went our guns and down came a plane in flames . . . one of the crew hanging head downwards from a parachute and was killed on a cliff . . . another plane fell in the road, three were killed and a fourth fell in the sea and was taken prisoner.

"On Friday we saw 15 planes coming over, then our aircraft began and we saw two come down . . . seven were shot down in this vicinity. One can't work with that thundering noise overhead . . . we hear many bombs drop in the silence of the night and plenty of green fire . . . all the windows shake . . . but we are getting used to it and it does not keep us awake . . . we have a lot to be thankful for . . . 25 of our Baptist churches have been bombed flat.

"We are all devoutly wishing this war was over, but we can't see the end of it. Have you been rationed yet? We have now two ounces of butter a week, half pound sugar, two ounces of tea. Still matters are no worse than in the last war.

"Work here is absolutely at a standstill, except government work and that is not much . . . many shops are closing . . . over 1,000 shops are empty. Plenty of soldiers everywhere . . . tanks, lorries and everything spells war."

John and his brother, Sidney Allen, were born in England, which was their home until after they were 21 years old. Their home town and from which the above letter was written is on the south of England opposite the Isle of Wright.

Next Tuesday a baton twirler and a pianist from Concordia College will give demonstrations of their skill at half time between the Racers and Westmont at the Arlington high school gymnasium. Game time is 8:30 o'clock.

Do Not Burn Leaves On Streets

The attention of householders is called to the fact that it is illegal to burn leaves or light fires on the streets of the village of Arlington Heights. Village officers are unable to give personal warnings to all who attempt to dispose of their leaves by that method and it has become necessary to instruct the police officers to arrest all violators.

IERC Surplus Commodities Arrive by the Ton

The relief clients in Cook county were made extremely happy on the surplus commodity distribution day last week when greatly increased quantities of commodities were handed out.

Better grades of fruits than ever before, finer potatoes and even hams and meats were on the list much to the surprise of the clients.

Nineteen thousand pounds of goods were delivered to Wheeling township last week. A large amount was also delivered to St. James and the Lutheran schools, which have eeen certified as entitled to the use of commodities in the operation of cafeterias. This delivery is about double the usual amount.

Local supervisors received letters early last week advising them that the supply of commodities had been greatly increased and that twenty items were being distributed to each client, an amount so great that the clients could not take them home at one time. Accordingly, deliveries will be twice a month starting November 1st. Gilbert Klehm, Wheeling supervisor, has been advised that deliveries this month will be the 15th and the 28th. December deliveries will be Dec. 12th and 27th.

Over a hundred families in Wheeling township comprising those on relief, old age and the blind pensioners, receive the commodities, which consist of potatoes, peas, oranges, onions, cabbage, apples, canner apple sauce, rice, raisins, salt pork, corn meal, lard, smoked ham, graham flour, wheat meal, wheat flour, eggs, bacon, lima beans.

Des Plaines Banker's Son Killed At N-W Railroad Crossing

David Schulze, 11 years old, son of Edwin H. Schulze, vice-president of the First National bank of Des Plaines, was killed Monday afternoon, when he rode his bicycle into the path of a North Western train at the Graceland avenue crossing in Des Plaines.

A watchman was on duty at the crossing but the boy's view was obscured by an automobile which had stopped to wait for the train to pass. The watchman claims that he waved to the boy to stop. In attempting to do so, his bicycle skidded onto the tracks, a wheel catching sideways in the crossing. David was unable to extricate himself before being struck.

The funeral is being held Thursday at 2:30 at Congregational church. A verdict of accidental death was rendered by the coroner's jury Tuesday morning, which recommended that gates or some other mechanical device be installed at all railroad crossings in Des Plaines.

The remainder of the evening will be given over to the presentation of the operetta entitled "The Land of Dreams Come True," by A. Campbell. After partaking of some magic berries four children are transported into the land of dreams come true by some mischievous pixies.

Arriving, they are introduced to all the children of Mother Goose and the Old Woman in the Shoe, Little Bo Peep, Contrary Mary, Jack and Jill, and all the other characters, as well as Contrary Mary's Flower Garden performs for the children. Realizing the great interest of the registrants in the draft numbers assigned to them, Paddock Publications is publishing this week the registration list of district one in Cook county. Copies of the list have been placed in the local postoffice of the six townships.

Consultation of the list appearing in this issue will make unnecessary a trip to Arlington Heights.

As the records did not specify the township in which the registrant resides, addresses given are postoffice addresses as far as possible. In many cases addresses given were by township or communities and not by postoffice. With a little patience, every name can be found.

Those residing in Schaumburg township may receive their mail from four postoffices, viz: Palatine, Roselle, Elgin and Bensenville. A similar condition exists in Elk Grove and other communities.

The numbers given are for record purposes only and do not govern the order in which the men will be called.

FIRST TO BE CALLED

Early published returns in the city press of the first 25 to be called in District One, Cook county, were not correct as many of the numbers appearing in the drawing had not yet been assigned to local registrants. As additional registration cards are received at the draft office subsequent numbers in sequence are assigned to them. As this paper goes to press the highest number assigned is No. 2489. There are still over two hundred cards belonging to Palatine that have not been recorded. When these are given their serial number, twenty-one of them will be properly inserted among the first fifty names which are given below as they appeared among the first 400 numbers drawn in the lottery.

The numbers belonging to the twenty-one Palatine unknown registrants are as follows:

2363, 2698, 2502, 2524, 2684, 2559, 2540, 2514, 2546, 2567, 2510, 2638, 2527, 2657, 2689, 2634, 2570, 2532, 2545, 2648, 2586.

Dinner To Start Scout Financial Campaign

The organization of the workers who will canvas the city for funds during the annual finance campaign for the Northwest Suburban Council Boy Scouts of America, November 4 to 18, is progressing rapidly under the leadership of Herman Bauman, general chairman of the campaign. Robert B. Leslie and Charles S. Stewart, council and district chairman of the finance committee and Scout Evecutive Donald E. Kyger have been assisting in the organization.

Dozens of men and women who realize the benefits scouting and cubbing provides the boys, have volunteered their services during the campaign. They know from past experience, or the experience of others, that they can derive considerable personal satisfaction by lending a hand to such a worthy cause. These workers are being organized into teams and will make a complete house-to-house canvas of Arlington Heights.

The "Kick-Off" dinner for the campaign workers, which inaugurates the campaign, will be held next Monday evening, November 4 at 6:30 o'clock at the north school. Mr. N. A. Carlson, president of the Arlington Heights school board will speak at this meeting and R. B. Leslie will explain the campaign plans to the workers. Scout Executive Donald E. Kyger will present a brief message. Music will be furnished by the north school orchestra.

Because of the rapidly increasing number of cubs and boy scouts each year this campaign becomes a larger and more important task. The following organizations in Arlington Heights are cooperating in this finance campaign: the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, scouters of Troop 5 sponsored by the Merle Guild Post the American Legion, scouters of Troop 7 sponsored by the parents committee; cubbers of Pack 232 sponsored by the Arlington Heights P.-T.A., Presbyterian Men's club, Methodist Mens club, Holy Name Society, Lutheran Laymen League, St. John's church, Parent-Teachers association, Trade and Civic Association, Scarsdale Association and Nurse's club.

The pastors in the community have been invited to the meeting. Troops five and seven have distributed finance campaign folders and window posters. Les Moodies is neighborhood chairman while John Kindler and W. A. Miles are scoutmasters.

Death Causes Postponement Of Democratic Meeting

On account of the death of Dr. Hayden, the meeting of the Wheeling township women's Democratic organization scheduled for Friday at the Homer J. Byrd home, has been postponed. Mrs. Hayden has taken an active part in the women's organization.

All Banks Closed On Election Day

All banks will be closed next Tuesday on account of election day, which is a legal holiday. Patrons are urged to anticipate their needs. The night depository is available for those who have subscribed to that service.

Three Prefer Enlistment To Waiting for Draft

There are three Arlington Heights young men who do not want to wait for the draft to call them into army service. They will enlist at once. In fact their preliminary papers have been forwarded from the local draft board to the recruiting office where the boys have applied.

They are Albert E. Duenn, 22 West Fremont st., William Foley, 301 N. State rd., and John G. Allen, 635 North Highland ave.

Mr. Foley, who is employed by the Northern Trust Bank, first "talked over" his enlistment with officers of the bank who have assured him the same protection as to job and insurance as though he was called by the draft.

John Allen who is self employed as a painter, could not see any reason to hang around awaiting a draft call that might not arrive for a year or more.

Albert Duenn, one of five brothers of draft age, is no stranger to army life as he spent a year in a CCC camp. "It is not so bad" says Albert, "and an enlistment now means that I am fulfilling my obligation to my country when I am a young man and will be free to follow my own desires after my army discharge." He is now employed at the Creamery Package.

Parents of all three boys have taken the stand that there is little for them to say and agree that "it is up to the boys to do what they think best."

Music, One-Act Plays To Be Presented At Arlington High School

The combined music and speech departments of the Arlington Heights township high school will present an evening of music and one-act plays in the high school auditorium Friday evening, November 15 at 8:00 p. m. A complete program of the instrumental and vocal numbers as well as the personnel of the casts for the one-act plays will be included in next week's issue of the Arlington Herald. The proceeds of this entertainment will be used for equipment for the two departments.

He was in apparent good health when he retired for the night.

Boy Scouts Enjoy Game, Pep Rally At University

More than 500 boy scouts and scouters from the Northwest Suburban council were guests of the Northwestern university last Saturday at the annual boy scout day where they saw the Northwestern-Indiana football game.

For the first time a special program was arranged in addition to the football game and the sigma chapter of the Alpha Phi Omega, a boy scout honorary fraternity, provided a program in the morning which included conducted tours of the campus and a pep rally for boy scouts in Patten gym where K. L. "Tug" Wilson, director of athletics, Tom Robinson, swimming coach, and other athletic celebrities of the university spoke to the scouts and paid tribute to the training which scouting provided.

This annual event is looked forward to every year and is greatly appreciated by all scouts and scouters.

Jack Belding Lunches And Dinners Applauded By Both Parties

Although the Democrats and Republicans are contradicting each other on a score of issues they are in common agreement on one thing and that is that Jack Belding, in charge of the kitchen and dining room at Eddies Castle Bar, Evergreen and Northwest Highway, Arlington Heights, knows how to prepare a tasty lunch on dinner. According to reprts, Jack has a way of making food taste good as well as knowing how to serve it. You are invited to Eddies Castle Bar to enjoy the daily business men's lunch or the special Sunday dinner.

ARLINGTON WOMEN KEGLERS' HALLOWE'EN PARTY

Appearing in costume, the usual bowling session was held, but what bowling. Some bowled backwards; others upside down and sideways while the spectators roared. Stunts and Hallowe'en foolishness held the limelight for the evening and it was with difficulty that the Herald staff photographer quieted them long enough to snap the above picture.

Krause's Strip Teasers—In real life they are Esther Kastning, Betty Krause, Irma Windheim, Ruth Becker, Gertrude Hakes.

A treasurer hunt followed the bowling, ending with refreshments at Gertrude Weinrichs on Euclid ave.

A VOTE FOR WILLKIE IS A VOTE FOR WAR

1 Because Willkie is urging more aid to England

2 Because Willkie has threatened to outmatch Hitler

3 Because Willkie represents and is controlled by the interests that will profit most from war.

4 Because Willkie would dangerously rush the defense program.

5 Because Willkie's inexperience in international affairs will blunder us into war.

Six Million Sick

By C. W. Lussman
Of Sieburg Pharmacy

The United States Public Health Service reports that on an average winter day SIX MILLION men, women and children are incapacitated through illness, and proportionately as many in other seasons.

This enormous waste in time, money and physical fitness could be reduced many times if every one consulted a physician at regular intervals and followed his advice to the letter.

Only a physician knows how to treat the ailing, only he can capably advise how to avoid "coming down with a cold." Energy, reserve, resistance to infection can be built up by intelligently following doctor's orders.

And the doctor's orders should be fulfilled by a trained, skilled druggist.

A VOTE FOR WILLKIE IS A VOTE FOR WAR

1 Because Willkie is urging more aid to England

2 Because Willkie has threatened to outmatch Hitler

3 Because Willkie represents and is controlled by the interests that will profit most from war.

4 Because Willkie would dangerously rush the defense program.

5 Because Willkie's inexperience in international affairs will blunder us into war.

Miss Bernice Diederich Bride Of Charles O'Hagan

The home of Mr. and Mrs. William Diederich, 408 North Haddow was the scene of a lovely wedding Saturday evening at 8 p. m., when their daughter, Bernice became the bride of Mr. Charles O'Hagan son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. O'Hagan of Scarsdale. The ceremony was performed by Father Stier in the presence of their immediate families.

Potted ferns with white and yellow chrysanthemums made an attractive setting for the ceremony, as the bride entered the Diederich living room on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage.

The bride chose for her wedding gown white velvet, fashioned on simple lines with long close fitting sleeves and sweetheart neck. Her veil was of white net, its crown fashioned of velvet, held in place with white carnations. She carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations and bavardia.

Miss Gloria Paddock served as maid of honor. Her gown was rose taffeta. The pink carnations worn in her hair were the same as those in her colonial bouquet. Robert O'Hagan left his studies at Marquette to serve as best man for his brother.

A large wedding cake was decorated with the same clasped hands that adorned the wedding cake of Mr. and Mrs. Diederich, 30 years ago. The guests were served a buffet supper.

Bernice graduated from the local high school with the class of '31 and attended Kendall College. Since that time she has been employed at the Meineke Honey Farm. Mr. O'Hagan graduated from the St. Mel high school in Chicago in '31, attended DePaul University and is now employed by a Chicago firm.

The young couple will make their home in Arlington Heights at 226 So. Vail ave.

Miss Bernice Diederich Bride Of Charles O'Hagan

The home of Mr. and Mrs. William Diederich, 408 North Haddow was the scene of a lovely wedding Saturday evening at 8 p. m., when their daughter, Bernice became the bride of Mr. Charles O'Hagan son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. O'Hagan of Scarsdale. The ceremony was performed by Father Stier in the presence of their immediate families.

Potted ferns with white and yellow chrysanthemums made an attractive setting for the ceremony, as the bride entered the Diederich living room on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage.

The bride chose for her wedding gown white velvet, fashioned on simple lines with long close fitting sleeves and sweetheart neck. Her veil was of white net, its crown fashioned of velvet, held in place with white carnations. She carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations and bavardia.

Miss Gloria Paddock served as maid of honor. Her gown was rose taffeta. The pink carnations worn in her hair were the same as those in her colonial bouquet. Robert O'Hagan left his studies at Marquette to serve as best man for his brother.

A large wedding cake was decorated with the same clasped hands that adorned the wedding cake of Mr. and Mrs. Diederich, 30 years ago. The guests were served a buffet supper.

Bernice graduated from the local high school with the class of '31 and attended Kendall College. Since that time she has been employed at the Meineke Honey Farm. Mr. O'Hagan graduated from the St. Mel high school in Chicago in '31, attended DePaul University and is now employed by a Chicago firm.

The young couple will make their home in Arlington Heights at 226 So. Vail ave.

LETTERS to the Editor

October 29, 1940

Old Scout throws his sombrero into the ring. He is sure of his election, for all reps and soreheads, about all of us, will rush to his support.

He says elect me president, I can beat Hitler at any game, I will give everybody a job. I will make a New World.

I favor all of F. D. R.'s farm labor and social laws, but I'll study them in order to give more benefits. I will reduce taxes, IIIII

I promise you that I can control Congress. We will repeal all New Deal laws and restore Laissez Faire, that will set free all "Big Business" and everybody to do as they please. This will make jobs, jobs, jobs, jobs andallow everybody to job everybody else. You may call this pouf, pouf and puff puff, but not so. I know! I know what I am talking about.

That feller in the White House won't debate. I'll show him. I'll make him sit up and take notice I I

I am the "Big Boy" that came up the hard way. I am tough. I'll be damned if I can't do as much work as any of you guys. Look me over. You may be ill fed and ragged now, but just elect me President and you'll wear diamonds and have lots of jugs in your cellar I I I

Of course, I know that the Constitution gives Congress absolute powers to make all of our laws and to throw the President out of office if he gets too gay, but I will control Congress. No Congress will tramp on me, as it has on other Presidents. I can control Hitler and his bunch and stop all wars. We won't fight, won't have to fight. Freedom's bells shall ring all over the world.

I must be elected, if not, this will be the last election in these United States. I want votes and I will promise and do anything to get them. My ward healers must be vigilant and work any dirty scheme to get votes. If you understand me right this won't sound like "Mein Kampf," or a would-be Dictator. I beseech voters to vote for me.

Signed, Old Scout.

Clark Gable

Edmund Lowe, the late Lew Cody and every other "heavy" in Hollywood turned down the lead in Dance, Fools, Dance, because they said their public would resent the killer characterization. A young actor took it and became famous overnight—Clark Gable.

Preventing Coating

Sometimes a coating forms over boiled custards. To prevent this, cover the custards tightly as soon as they're cool, and store them in a refrigerator.

Editorial From Woodstock Sentinel

If you have any doubt as to what will happen if this country gets into the war, (or perhaps only continues to flirt with war), read carefully the following provisions of a proposed law which is now before Congress and has the endorsement of the Senate Committee on Military Affairs:

THE JOSH LEE BILL
No. S. 1650
Now Pending in Congress

Do you know what our Government is preparing to do to RAISE THE MONEY and CONSCRIPT THE CITIZENRY when it puts the country into war?

THE PLANS ARE ALREADY PREPARED.

The measures are already before the Congress and have been favorably reported by the Senate Committee on Military Affairs, which considered them and recommended them.

Indeed, in the provisions of the Josh Lee bill, the Congress does not even have to declare war.

The President has only to declare that a "STATE OF EMERGENCY" exists, due to the "IMMINENCE OF WAR" and immediately democracy is changed to a more drastic and disastrous despotism than exists in any European or any Asiatic country.

The first requirement of this despotic measure is that every person shall be COMPELLED TO REGISTER his goods, wealth, and financial resources and obligations with the Government.

The person must include in his statement not only HIS FAMILY HOME, but his life insurance policies and all sources of possible wealth and income.

The citizen would then be compelled to invest his resources in fifty year government bonds. The bonds would pay not more than ONE PER CENT INTEREST and would be subject to taxation.

If the citizen should not have the cash at hand or available to buy these bonds, HE MUST BORROW from the Government.

To secure the necessary funds from the Government to pay for these one per cent bonds, he must pay the government SIX PER CENT INTEREST. He must also secure his notes by adequate collateral.

The penalties for failure to comply in complete detail with these exacting requirements are severe.

If the citizen fails to disclose his gross wealth and possessions, including the value of his home and his insurance policies, he is ASSESSED A FINE of $10,000 or IMPRISONED up to two years.

If the citizen fails to buy his full allotment of bonds he will be FINED up to $100,000 and IMPRISONED up to five years.

LETTERS to the Editor

October 29, 1940

Old Scout throws his sombrero into the ring. He is sure of his election, for all reps and soreheads, about all of us, will rush to his support.

He says elect me president, I can beat Hitler at any game, I will give everybody a job. I will make a New World.

I favor all of F. D. R.'s farm labor and social laws, but I'll study them in order to give more benefits. I will reduce taxes, HHH

I promise you that I can control Congress. We will repeal all New Deal laws and restore Laissez Faire, that will set free all "Big Business" and everybody to do as they please. This will make jobs, jobs, jobs, jobs andallow everybody to job everybody else. You may call this pouf, pouf and puff puff, but not so. I know! I know what I am talking about.

That feller in the White House won't debate. I'll show him. I'll make him sit up and take notice I I

I am the "Big Boy" that came up the hard way. I am tough. I'll be damned if I can't do as much work as any of you guys. Look me over. You may be ill fed and ragged now, but just elect me President and you'll wear diamonds and have lots of jugs in your cellar I I I

Of course, I know that the Constitution gives Congress absolute powers to make all of our laws and to throw the President out of office if he gets too gay, but I will control Congress. No Congress will tramp on me, as it has on other Presidents. I can control Hitler and his bunch and stop all wars. We won't fight, won't have to fight. Freedom's bells shall ring all over the world.

I must be elected, if not, this will be the last election in these United States. I want votes and I will promise and do anything to get them. My ward healers must be vigilant and work any dirty scheme to get votes. If you understand me right this won't sound like "Mein Kampf," or a would-be Dictator. I beseech voters to vote for me.

Signed, Old Scout.

Clark Gable

Edmund Lowe, the late Lew Cody and every other "heavy" in Hollywood turned down the lead in Dance, Fools, Dance, because they said their public would resent the killer characterization. A young actor took it and became famous overnight—Clark Gable.

Preventing Coating

Sometimes a coating forms over boiled custards. To prevent this, cover the custards tightly as soon as they're cool, and store them in a refrigerator.

Editorial From Woodstock Sentinel

If you have any doubt as to what will happen if this country gets into the war, (or perhaps only continues to flirt with war), read carefully the following provisions of a proposed law which is now before Congress and has the endorsement of the Senate Committee on Military Affairs:

THE JOSH LEE BILL
No. S. 1650
Now Pending in Congress

Do you know what our Government is preparing to do to RAISE THE MONEY and CONSCRIPT THE CITIZENRY when it puts the country into war?

THE PLANS ARE ALREADY PREPARED.

The measures are already before the Congress and have been favorably reported by the Senate Committee on Military Affairs, which considered them and recommended them.

Indeed, in the provisions of the Josh Lee bill, the Congress does not even have to declare war.

The President has only to declare that a "STATE OF EMERGENCY" exists, due to the "IMMINENCE OF WAR" and immediately democracy is changed to a more drastic and disastrous despotism than exists in any European or any Asiatic country.

The first requirement of this despotic measure is that every person shall be COMPELLED TO REGISTER his goods, wealth, and financial resources and obligations with the Government.

The person must include in his statement not only HIS FAMILY HOME, but his life insurance policies and all sources of possible wealth and income.

The citizen would then be compelled to invest his resources in fifty year government bonds. The bonds would pay not more than ONE PER CENT INTEREST and would be subject to taxation.

If the citizen should not have the cash at hand or available to buy these bonds, HE MUST BORROW from the Government..

To secure the necessary funds from the Government to pay for these one per cent bonds, he must pay the government SIX PER CENT INTEREST. He must also secure his notes by adequate collateral.

The penalties for failure to comply in complete detail with these exacting requirements are severe.

If the citizen fails to disclose his gross wealth and possessions, including the value of his home and his insurance policies, he is ASSESSED A FINE of $10,000 or IMPRISONED up to two years.

If the citizen fails to buy his full allotment of bonds he will be FINED up to $100,000 and IMPRISONED up to five years.

Recorder Kaindl Saves Money For Taxpayers

Sifting through the uproar and smoke screen of the present political campaign came some enlightening figures which undeniably affect the well being of all residents of our community.

In his campaign for re-election to the office of County Recorder, Edward J. Kaindl has published the following figures, which probably are the most accurate index of business conditions and the outlook for the future.

	1939	Fees	1940	Fees
Number of documents pertaining to personal property	81,639	$110,045	92,757	$121,383
Number of Trust Deeds	24,531		28,907
Number of documents filed without charge as provided by law	108,866		123,149
The figures released pertaining to the Torrens office are:
Trust deeds	4,141		5,091
Documents other than trust deeds	23,012		25,414

Mr. Kaindl takes pride in pointing out that the increased revenue of $65,734 to the County, with the great volume of extra work it entailed, has not increased the expenses of his office.

In commenting on the report Recorder Kaindl calls attention to significant facts—

"I regard my office," says Mr. Kaindl, "as an excellent business barometer. The figures I have compiled indicate an expansion of credit which is steadily increasing in volume.

"Although my office files documents of every nature, I have particularly studied the real estate transaction figures because in my mind, the taking up of land and erection of buildings affects every phase of business endeavor. When one considers the thousands of industries which contribute the materials going into buildings, the significance increased recording of real estate transfers for the purpose of establishing new homes can not be missed.

"I feel grateful for President Roosevelt's F. H. A. Housing program which has unlocked the doors of stagnant credit making possible the sound real estate boom which all parts of the City of Chicago and most Suburban localities are enjoying.

"In looking back over my six years of service as Recorder, I feel the prospect for healthy business expansion is very bright and this investigation is based on my own figures which I know to be absolutely correct."

Mr. Kaindl, who is also Registrar of Titles, is serving his sixth year in the office and is a candidate for re-election on the Democratic ticket, with the endorsement of many prominent lawyers, realtors, civic and social organizations, and non-partisan civic and neighborhood associations.

Recorder Kaindl long has been associated with civic leadership on the Northwest side, and throughout Cook County since his advent into public life as a member of the Chicago City Council in 1917.

Reviewing Arlington Bowlers

Meet Mr. Varnak

Let's take a champ of Monday night
And see if we can shed some light
On how a man can lose his stuff
On Alleys that are not so tough,
In Brookfield, folks, he was the best,
It's different here, perhaps you've guessed
We wonder how he bowled so high,
The alleys there were surely "pie."
A drop of twenty points or more
Would make the average bowler sore;
Not to mention he can't tarry
If he beats his son named Jerry.
The other nite he teamed with "Lou,"
And bowled the ladies two-to-two;
The ladies trimmed them pretty bad
Without the spot they should'a had.
A real good sport, hard to beat
Owns the alley, they call him Pete;
We saw the trophies that he's won,
There must be close to forty-one.
Of course we think that he's not thru,
With an average of one-seventy-two;
Farm him out on Thursday night
And next year he should be all right.

Recorder Kaindl Saves Money For Taxpayers

Sifting through the uproar and smoke screen of the present political campaign came some enlightening figures which undeniably affect the well being of all residents of our community.

In his campaign for re-election to the office of County Recorder, Edward J. Kaindl has published the following figures, which probably are the most accurate index of business conditions and the outlook for the future.

	1939	Fees	1940	Fees
Number of documents pertaining to personal property	81,639	$110,045	92,757	$121,383
Number of Trust Deeds	24,531		28,907
Number of documents filed without charge as provided by law	108,866		123,149
The figures released pertaining to the Torrens office are:
Trust deeds	4,141		5,091
Documents other than trust deeds	23,012		25,414

Mr. Kaindl takes pride in pointing out that the increased revenue of $65,734 to the County, with the great volume of extra work it entailed, has not increased the expenses of his office.

In commenting on the report Recorder Kaindl calls attention to significant facts—

"I regard my office," says Mr. Kaindl, "as an excellent business barometer. The figures I have compiled indicate an expansion of credit which is steadily increasing in volume.

"Although my office files documents of every nature, I have particularly studied the real estate transaction figures because in my mind, the taking up of land and erection of buildings affects every phase of business endeavor. When one considers the thousands of industries which contribute the materials going into buildings, the significance increased recording of real estate transfers for the purpose of establishing new homes can not be missed.

"I feel grateful for President Roosevelt's F. H. A. Housing program which has unlocked the doors of stagnant credit making possible the sound real estate boom which all parts of the City of Chicago and most Suburban localities are enjoying.

"In looking back over my six years of service as Recorder, I feel the prospect for healthy business expansion is very bright and this investigation is based on my own figures which I know to be absolutely correct."

Mr. Kaindl, who is also Registrar of Titles, is serving his sixth year in the office and is a candidate for re-election on the Democratic ticket, with the endorsement of many prominent lawyers, realtors, civic and social organizations, and non-partisan civic and neighborhood associations.

Recorder Kaindl long has been associated with civic leadership on the Northwest side, and throughout Cook County since his advent into public life as a member of the Chicago City Council in 1917.

Reviewing Arlington Bowlers

Meet Mr. Varnak

Let's take a champ of Monday night
And see if we can shed some light
On how a man can lose his stuff
On Alleys that are not so tough,
In Brookfield, folks, he was the best,
It's different here, perhaps you've guessed
We wonder how he bowled so high,
The alleys there were surely "pie."
A drop of twenty points or more
Would make the average bowler sore;
Not to mention he can't tarry
If he beats his son named Jerry.
The other nite he teamed with "Lou,"
And bowled the ladies two-to-two;
The ladies trimmed them pretty bad
Without the spot they should'a had.
A real good sport, hard to beat
Owns the alley, they call him Pete;
We saw the trophies that he's won,
There must be close to forty-one.
Of course we think that he's not thru,
With an average of one-seventy-two;
Farm him out on Thursday night
And next year he should be all right.

WALTHER LEAGUE

Northern Illinois District

News items for this department should be mailed not later than Monday to Arlene Nagel, publicity chairman, 804 N. Douglas St., Arlington Heights.

This is the week in which we introduce our new feature, the history of each individual League in successive columns. First, however, let's have some other news.

Don't forget the Zone hike on November 3 to begin at 2:30 from the Arlington church. Each society secretary was requested to send out cards to each of her own members so you evidently have heard from her. Try to get your crowd together and come out and enjoy a good time. If the weather is as grand as it has been the past few days, no one should miss hiking through the woods in the leaves, and then the fellowship later around the huge bonfire, eating weiners and marshmallows and singing songs. Be seeing you.

Also, next Sunday there will be a ping pong tournament between the Elgin City Champions and Rolly Fenz and Don Mellberg of Roselle at the Roselle Lutheran school. We do hope this won't interfere with the boys coming down, but we also wish them luck in their contests.

The Leaguers of St. Andrews, Park Ridge, wil enjoy a Hallowe'en party on November 2 at their school hall. The Roselle League will hold its seasonal party on November 6—a little bit late, but "better late than never." The Arlington juniors will have theirs on October 30, and the Seniors are planning theirs for November 4.

Bill Taube and Herb Heinemann, active Arlington seniors, celebrate their birthdays next week on League activities days, Bill on the 3rd on the hike, and Herb on the 4th at the local Hallowe'en party.

We have some more news for you for November 17, but will wait for further details. Now let's start with the history of the Arlington Heights League.

On September 29, 1927, (just exactly 13 years old on the date of our fall rally held here, by the way) Rev. H. C. Fricke called a special meeting for a group of young people who were interested in organizing a Walther League. Of course, most of them had no clear idea of what this League was, what it had for a program, ideals, etc., so Rev. Fricke explained it quite thoroughly. They didn't do much else that first night except to decide to hold two meetings a month—one to be devoted for Education and Bible study, and the other for business and pleasure —and to hold the next one on October 5, 1927.

Accordingly, on October 5 forty-four young people met and elected their officers and signed the Constitution and By-Laws in conformity with the International Walther League. Mr. O. A. Koehneke was elected the first president. He is, by the way, still very active in District, Zone, and local society work. Mr. Edgar Flentie, who has since gone to his Heavenly Reward, was the first vice president; Miss Edna Taege was the first secretary; Miss Helen Gieseke, now Mrs. Elroy Winkelmann, was the initial treasurer; the executive committee consisted of Wilbert Wiese and Walter Tesch. Mr. Walter Meyer was the first librarian. Among the first forty-four members were Gertrude Bolte (Mrs. J. Pfingsten), Mrs. Helen Baumann, Harry Niebuhr, William Lackner, Gustav Heidorn, Arthur Guenther, William and Henry Schroeder, Selma Troyke (Mrs. Henry Schroeder), Kurt Noack, Gertrude Flentie (Mrs. Gilbert Wilke), Gilbert Wilke, Albert Russell, Alma Hinz, Julia Geffert, Hilda Geffert, Elroy Thompson, Oscar Hinrichs.

Miss Ruth Gehrs, Route 2, Arlington Heights was elected recording secretary of the Northern Illinois District of the International Walther League at the District convention at the Stevens Hotel in Chicago on October 19-20. Ruth is also recording secretary of the Northwest Suburban Zone, a part of the District, and vice president of the Arlington Heights Senior Walther League.

Here's something that will be news to most of you—on February 6, 1928, the Des Plaines Leaguers were present at our meeting to discuss the possibility of organizing what was to be known as the Northwest Suburban Zone. At the same meeting it was decided to send in our application for membership in the International Walther League. So on May 7 it was resolved to sponsor the organization rally of the Northwest Suburban Zone on June 17. Accordingly, on June 17, the Northwest Suburban Zone was officially organized. Some week we will give the history of the Zone. That, too, should prove interesting.

There were quite a number of new members now, some of whom are still well-known here. Art Niebuhr, Dorothea Schroeder, Paul Hoeft, Emma Schrpeder (Mrs. Gilbert Beer), Miss Minna Militzer, Gretchen Stahmer (Mrs. Wm. Neumann), Erna and Walter Ninneman, Ruth Bendien (Mrs. Theo. Preuss), and Theo. Preuss.

Nothing much else of importance took place during 1928 except that they took part in the Messenger campaign and the Wheatridge Seals Campaign, and also had a blankett subscription to the Northern Illinois Leaguer.

The highlight of 1930 was the District convention which was held here in February 22 and 23, 1930. This was the main work throughout 1929, and to hear Julia Geffert, Alma Hina, Carl Weinrich, Mr. Koehneke and a few others tell how they worked until 2 o'clock for several nights preceding the big event, some of them not going home or to bed at all, how they carried mashed potatoes in massive kettles from the upstairs cooking room to the old gym room of the old high school, it really must have been some affair. Between 600 and 800 people enjoyed the banquet at which Prof. O. P. Kretzmann spoke, and approximately the same number were housed in the homes of our congregation members for the two days, 3 or 4 in one bed. If any of you remember how the old gym looked in the high school you can picture to yourselves tables set up on the main floor and over the balcony seats to seat 700 people, with aisles about 2½ feet through which the junior girls had to struggle to serve. The church was packed to its capacity at all the sessions. All of our people here were too busy to attend many of the sessions and we were unable to peruse the district books so we can't tell you much about them, but here's a list of chairmen for the convention: executive chairman, O. A. Koehneke; financial, Tracy Winkelman; housing, Bertha Koenig (Mrs. Ray Landmeyer); publicity, Kurt Noack; entertainment, Theo. Preuss; register credentials, Julia Geffert; service, Irma Noack (Mrs. Fred Miller); banquet, Wm. Keiser; secretary, Mrs. Ruth Preuss. When you compare the District Convention this year with the history of the one then, ten years ago, you must admit it was a "feather in their caps."

In 1931 the Walther League conducted a religious canvass of the town. On May 17 we again were hosts to the zone rally.

On May 15, 1932, the society decided to have a confirmation reunion service. The classes from 1921 to 1931 were present. It was a very inspirational service.

Perhaps one of the most memorable things that occurred during 1932 was the sauerkraut supper sponsored by the society to which most of the congregation went. The girls cooked the meal and the boys served it. How we wish we could have been there.

1933 was a rather quiet year in so far as outstanding events was concerned. The usual activities took place, climaxed by a Christmas party to which the Schaumburg society was invited.

During 1934 ping pong really was organized here. The usual zone fellowship dinner, rallies, Christmas parties, subscription campaigns, roller-skating parties were all a part of these years' program, Talent Quest.

It was in 1935 that the seniors helped the juniors organize a library. In 1935 was also the year the congregation celebrated its 75th anniversary so the League took a part in it. After 1935 the "hospice chairman" was known and still is known as the "Christian Service Chairman." Carl Weinrich also became active in zone affairs that year.

"Luther, the Liberator" was presented in 1936; many of our Leaguers were in the production.

In 1937 a reunion service of the confirmand of the past ten years was held on May 23 in conjunction with the Walther League birthday.

The birthday of the organization was in 1938, duly celebrated on May 22, 1939.

The Bible Institute was begun in 1939, the Institute being conducted like a school with regular attendance, assignments, text books, examinations, diplomas, etc. This was also the beginning of the annual Easter breakfast and the Messenger-Cresset campaign.

Some of our present regular activities were initiated some years back: annual play, Christmas party, Christmas carolling, Wheatridge seals sales, rallies, delegates at conventions, tagging at the Old Folks' Home, Camp Cisco days, and many, many other "classics." The only thing we think is really missing that must have been so much fun was the sleigh ride and hay rack parties. Perhaps we'll change that to three things —annual Zone fellowship dinner, and inviting other Leagues to our meetings and parties.s

This finishes up the history of the Arlington Leagues, but we do want to say we have much to be thankful for and proud of. We have many people active in zone and district affairs. Ruth Gehrs, whose picture appears somewhere near here, is District and Zone secretary; O. A. Koehneke is the District Unite the Youth Endeavor chairman; Ted Meyer is Zone president; Dick Niemeyer is recreation chairman. Our membership has grown from 44 on October 5, 1929, to 77, the largest in the Zone and among the highest in the District, on October 26, 1940. Next week we will hear from Barrington.

Bar Association Applauds Courtney as State's Attorney

Republicans and independent citizens of the suburban towns of Cook county are urged to vote for re-election of State's Attorney Thomas J. Courtney, November 5, by a committee of well known attorneys that includes several past presidents of the Chicago Bar Association.

The Bar Association endorsement of Mr. Courtney as well as the Chicago Crime Commission's commendation of the State's Attorney's record since 1932 are quoted by the committee whose members include Tappan Gregory, Roger Sherman, Frederic Burnman, Darrell S. Boyd, William S. Warfield III, Donald L. Thompson, Henry P. C. N. Barber, Owen Rall, Nelson G. Wettling, John P. Landreth, Tim G. Lowry, R. L. Stevenson, Gilbert N. Scribner, William U. Bardwell, and William B. Moulton.

All are residents of suburban communities and Moulton is president of the Village of Winnetka. Tappan Gregory and Roger Sherman are former presidents of the Chicago Bar Association. Their statement urging their fellow Republicans and independents to unite in support of State's Attorney Courtney regardless of whether they intend to vote for Wendell L. Willkie for president and the Republican state candidates, says in part:

"This committee of Republicans and Independents believes that whether you vote for Willkie or Roosevelt it is essential to the public interest that Thomas J. Courtney be re-elected as State's Attorney. The office of State's Attorney is one of the most powerful in Cook county and it is of the utmost importance that it continue to be filled by an honest and fearless prosecutor.

"The lawyers of Cook county are in an excellent position to judge the merits of Mr. Courtney and his opponent, Judge Nelson. The members of the Chicago Bar Association published this opinion of the two candidates:

"THOMAS J. COURTNEY — Democrat:

In administering the office of State's Attorney for more than seven years he has demonstrated that he is a capable, vigorous, courageous and independent public official and that he is exceptionally well qualified for the office.

The Citizens Committee of the Suburban Towns in their letter also quoted from the Chicago Crime Commission statement signed by Bertram J. Cahn, president, which extolled Courtney's administration as state's attorney as "having inspired the confidence of the citizens of Cook county through his integrity and ability.

"OSCAR F. NELSON—Republican:

"For many years including his term on the bench, politics and partisan political activity have been a very large element in his active life. We regard him as not qualified for the office of state's attorney."

"In the interest of law enforcement in Cook county and for the benefit of the suburban towns we urge you to put a cross opposite the name of Thomas J. Courtney in the first ballot column at the election, Nov. 5."

See Moreland Winner In Race For Congress

Hot Race In Seventh District, Largest In United States

James C. Moreland who fought political corruption consistently during his term in the Chicago city council and who has been the Republican opponent of Congressman Leonard W. Schuetz three times, has more than an even chance to win the congressional seat next Tuesday, according to present indications.

Eight townships in northwestern Cook county ond seventeen northwest side Chicago wards are included in the seventh district, which is the largest in the United States, with an estimated population of 900,000.

Sees Victory Ahead

Despite the heavy margins rolled up by Schuetz since the New Deal largess became operative, the Republican organization, said to be the most effective this time ever perfected in that vast district, is counted on to give Moreland a fighting chance. He and his close aids insist they are coming down the homestretch in the lead.

In 1936, in a total vote of 420,714, Schuetz defeated Moreland by a plurality of 90,080. Two years ago Moreland took after him again and whittled the lead down to 30,681.

"This time," Mr. Moreland said Tuesday when he was in Arlington Heights, "I'll wipe it out entirely."

Born in Log Cabin

Moreland first saw the light of day in a Kentucky log cabin in 1887. He was a country editor as a youngster before heading for Chicago and prosperity as a real estate operator. When he was nominated for county assessor in 1934 he ws the spearhead of the fight on Mayor Kelly and his City Hall organization that dominated the entire county pay roll, as well as the city, with the exception of five county commissioners from the country towns.

He has been Republican committeeman of the 41st ward for many years. He is married, has three children, and lives at 5909 North Mason ave.

Died in White House

The first wife of President John Tyler died in the White House in 1842.

Bernice T. Van der Vries Has No Opposition For Reelection Representative

A candidate without a contest is Bernice T. Van der Vries whose name will appear on the ballot for member of the House of Representatives in the General Assembly.

Because the Democratic senatorial committee for the seventh district decided that only one of its party should be nominated in the April primary for one of the three memberships in the lower house, the voters will elect the three (two Republican and one Democrat) nominated in the primary.

Mrs. Van der Vries has not been content to rest on the certainty of her own election, but has given all of her time and energy in assisting the other members of the Republican ticket. Her schedule this final week of the campaign is typical of the past six weeks when as a member of the national, state and county speaker's bureaus, she has made more than thirty speeches.

On Monday she spoke in Palos Heights, Berwyn and Elmwood Park. On Tuesday after assisting at a luncheon for candidates given by the Illinois League of Republican women at the LaSalle hotel and a tea also for candidates given by the National Republican Women's club of Chicago she will go to Milwaukee for an evening meeting. On Friday Mrs. Van der Vries will be an honor guest at the luncheon of the West Suburban Woman's club and later she will speak to Republican women of New Trier township at headquarters in Wilmette. On Saturday there will be mass meetings in the cities of Chicago Heights, Calumet City and other towns in the southern part of Cook county.

DO YOU LIKE HORSE BACK RIDING?

If the answer is yes — come over to see us.

Right here in your very midst is one of the nicest places you have ever seen. Modern — clean — sanitary and attractive buildings.

Large fenced in track (if you are timid) illuminated for night riding.

Or maybe you might want to go up the famous trail that crosses our front lawn. Miles and miles of it (no highway riding) through the dense forests and running parallel with the river for quite a distance.

Go to Wheeling if you like — see Dams 1 and 2 — visit the big CCC camp. Or you can ride south and go all the way to North avenue.

Our horses have been carefully selected to meet the variable demand. Everyone of them is as safe as sitting in your favorite chair. They are well fed — well cleaned and properly equipped for your comfort, pleasure and safety.

There is a pleasant, nicely furnished club room affording relaxation before or after the ride — powder room for ladies. The atmosphere is refined but not snooty. You'll be agreeably surprised however, to find a noticeable absense of the undesirable features usually connected with a riding stable.

Visit us — even if you don't ride and tell us if you think we have exaggerated. You'll find our rates are more modest, too, than you might expect them to be.

The Arlington juniors will have theirs on October 30, and the Seniors are planning theirs for November 4.

Bill Taube and Herb Heinemann, active Arlington seniors, celebrate their birthdays next week on League activities days, Bill on the 3rd on the hike, and Herb on the 4th at the local Hallowe'en party.

We have some more news for you for November 17, but will wait for further details. Now let's start with the history of the Arlington Heights League.

On September 29, 1927, (just exactly 13 years old on the date of our fall rally held here, by the way) Rev. H. C. Fricke called a special meeting for a group of young people who were interested in organizing a Walther League. Of course, most of them had no clear idea of what this League was, what it had for a program, ideals, etc., so Rev. Fricke explained it quite thoroughly. They didn't do much else that first night except to decide to hold two meetings a month—one to be devoted for Education and Bible study, and the other for business and pleasure —and to hold the next one on October 5, 1927.

Miss Ruth Gehrs, Route 2, Arlington Heights was elected recording secretary of the Northern Illinois District of the International Walther League at the District convention at the Stevens Hotel in Chicago on October 19-20. Ruth is also recording secretary of the Northwest Suburban Zone, a part of the District, and vice president of the Arlington Heights Senior Walther League.

Here's something that will be news to most of you—on February 6, 1928, the Des Plaines Leaguers were present at our meeting to discuss the possibility of organizing what was to be known as the Northwest Suburban Zone. At the same meeting it was decided to send in our application for membership in the International Walther League. So on May 7 it was resolved to sponsor the organization rally of the Northwest Suburban Zone on June 17. Accordingly, on June 17, the Northwest Suburban Zone was officially organized. Some week we will give the history of the Zone. That, too, should prove interesting.

There were quite a number of new members now, some of whom are still well-known here. Art Niebuhr, Dorothea Schroeder, Paul Hoeft, Emma Schroeder (Mrs. Gilbert Beer), Miss Minna Militzer, Gretchen Stahmer (Mrs. Wm. Neumann), Erna and Walter Ninneman, Ruth Bendien (Mrs. Theo. Preuss), and Theo. Preuss.

Nothing much else of importance took place during 1928 except that they took part in the Messenger campaign and the Wheatridge Seals Campaign, and also had a blankett subscription to the Northern Illinois Leaguer.

The highlight of 1930 was the District convention which was held here in February 22 and 23, 1930. All of our people here were too busy to attend many of the sessions and we were unable to peruse the district books so we can't tell you much about them, but here's a list of chairmen for the convention: executive chairman, O. A. Koehneke; financial, Tracy Winkelman; housing, Bertha Koenig (Mrs. Ray Landmeyer); publicity, Kurt Noack; entertainment, Theo. Preuss; register credentials, Julia Geffert; service, Irma Noack (Mrs. Fred Miller); banquet, Wm. Keiser; secretary, Mrs. Ruth Preuss. When you compare the District Convention this year with the history of the one then, ten years ago, you must admit it was a "feather in their caps."

In 1931 the Walther League conducted a religious canvass of the town. On May 17 we again were hosts to the zone rally.

On May 15, 1932, the society decided to have a confirmation reunion service. The classes from 1921 to 1931 were present. It was a very inspirational service.

Perhaps one of the most memorable things that occurred during 1932 was the sauerkraut supper sponsored by the society to which most of the congregation went. The girls cooked the meal and the boys served it. How we wish we could have been there.

1933 was a rather quiet year in so far as outstanding events was concerned. The usual activities took place, climaxed by a Christmas party to which the Schaumburg society was invited.

During 1934 ping pong really was organized here. The usual zone fellowship dinner, rallies, Christmas parties, subscription campaigns, roller-skating parties were all a part of these years' program, Talent Quest.

It was in 1935 that the seniors helped the juniors organize a library. In 1935 was also the year the congregation celebrated its 75th anniversary so the League took a part in it. After 1935 the "hospice chairman" was known and still is known as the "Christian Service Chairman." Carl Weinrich also became active in zone affairs that year.

"Luther, the Liberator" was presented in 1936; many of our Leaguers were in the production.

In 1937 a reunion service of the confirmand of the past ten years was held on May 23 in conjunction with the Walther League birthday.

The birthday of the organization was in 1938, duly celebrated on May 22, 1939.

The Bible Institute was begun in 1939, the Institute being conducted like a school with regular attendance, assignments, text books, examinations, diplomas, etc. This was also the beginning of the annual Easter breakfast and the Messenger-Cresset campaign.

Some of our present regular activities were initiated some years back: annual play, Christmas party, Christmas carolling, Wheatridge seals sales, rallies, delegates at conventions, tagging at the Old Folks' Home, Camp Cisco days, and many, many other "classics." The only thing we think is really missing that must have been so much fun was the sleigh ride and hay rack parties. Perhaps we'll change that to three things —annual Zone fellowship dinner, and inviting other Leagues to our meetings and parties.s

This finishes up the history of the Arlington Leagues, but we do want to say we have much to be thankful for and proud of. We have many people active in zone and district affairs. Ruth Gehrs, whose picture appears somewhere near here, is District and Zone secretary; O. A. Koehneke is the District Unite the Youth Endeavor chairman; Ted Meyer is Zone president; Dick Niemeyer is recreation chairman. Our membership has grown from 44 on October 5, 1929, to 77, the largest in the Zone and among the highest in the District, on October 26, 1940. Next week we will hear from Barrington.

Bar Association Applauds Courtney as State's Attorney

Republicans and independent citizens of the suburban towns of Cook county are urged to vote for re-election of State's Attorney Thomas J. Courtney, November 5, by a committee of well known attorneys that includes several past presidents of the Chicago Bar Association.

The Bar Association endorsement of Mr. Courtney as well as the Chicago Crime Commission's commendation of the State's Attorney's record since 1932 are quoted by the committee whose members include Tappan Gregory, Roger Sherman, Frederic Burnman, Darrell S. Boyd, William S. Warfield III, Donald L. Thompson, Henry P. C. N. Barber, Owen Rall, Nelson G. Wettling, John P. Landreth, Tim G. Lowry, R. L. Stevenson, Gilbert N. Scribner, William U. Bardwell, and William B. Moulton.

All are residents of suburban communities and Moulton is president of the Village of Winnetka. Tappan Gregory and Roger Sherman are former presidents of the Chicago Bar Association. Their statement urging their fellow Republicans and independents to unite in support of State's Attorney Courtney regardless of whether they intend to vote for Wendell L. Willkie for president and the Republican state candidates, says in part:

"This committee of Republicans and Independents believes that whether you vote for Willkie or Roosevelt it is essential to the public interest that Thomas J. Courtney be re-elected as State's Attorney. The office of State's Attorney is one of the most powerful in Cook county and it is of the utmost importance that it continue to be filled by an honest and fearless prosecutor.

"The lawyers of Cook county are in an excellent position to judge the merits of Mr. Courtney and his opponent, Judge Nelson. The members of the Chicago Bar Association published this opinion of the two candidates:

"THOMAS J. COURTNEY — Democrat:

In administering the office of State's Attorney for more than seven years he has demonstrated that he is a capable, vigorous, courageous and independent public official and that he is exceptionally well qualified for the office.

The Citizens Committee of the Suburban Towns in their letter also quoted from the Chicago Crime Commission statement signed by Bertram J. Cahn, president, which extolled Courtney's administration as state's attorney as "having inspired the confidence of the citizens of Cook county through his integrity and ability.

"OSCAR F. NELSON—Republican:

"For many years including his term on the bench, politics and partisan political activity have been a very large element in his active life. We regard him as not qualified for the office of state's attorney."

"In the interest of law enforcement in Cook county and for the benefit of the suburban towns we urge you to put a cross opposite the name of Thomas J. Courtney in the first ballot column at the election, Nov. 5."

See Moreland Winner In Race For Congress

Hot Race In Seventh District, Largest In United States

James C. Moreland who fought political corruption consistently during his term in the Chicago city council and who has been the Republican opponent of Congressman Leonard W. Schuetz three times, has more than an even chance to win the congressional seat next Tuesday, according to present indications.

Eight townships in northwestern Cook county ond seventeen northwest side Chicago wards are included in the seventh district, which is the largest in the United States, with an estimated population of 900,000.

Sees Victory Ahead

Despite the heavy margins rolled up by Schuetz since the New Deal largess became operative, the Republican organization, said to be the most effective this time ever perfected in that vast district, is counted on to give Moreland a fighting chance. He and his close aids insist they are coming down the homestretch in the lead.

In 1936, in a total vote of 420,714, Schuetz defeated Moreland by a plurality of 90,080. Two years ago Moreland took after him again and whittled the lead down to 30,681.

"This time," Mr. Moreland said Tuesday when he was in Arlington Heights, "I'll wipe it out entirely."

Born in Log Cabin

Moreland first saw the light of day in a Kentucky log cabin in 1887. He was a country editor as a youngster before heading for Chicago and prosperity as a real estate operator. When he was nominated for county assessor in 1934 he ws the spearhead of the fight on Mayor Kelly and his City Hall organization that dominated the entire county pay roll, as well as the city, with the exception of five county commissioners from the country towns.

He has been Republican committeeman of the 41st ward for many years. He is married, has three children, and lives at 5909 North Mason ave.

Died in White House

The first wife of President John Tyler died in the White House in 1842.

Bernice T. Van der Vries Has No Opposition For Reelection Representative

A candidate without a contest is Bernice T. Van der Vries whose name will appear on the ballot for member of the House of Representatives in the General Assembly.

Because the Democratic senatorial committee for the seventh district decided that only one of its party should be nominated in the April primary for one of the three memberships in the lower house, the voters will elect the three (two Republican and one Democrat) nominated in the primary.

Mrs. Van der Vries has not been content to rest on the certainty of her own election, but has given all of her time and energy in assisting the other members of the Republican ticket. Her schedule this final week of the campaign is typical of the past six weeks when as a member of the national, state and county speaker's bureaus, she has made more than thirty speeches.

On Monday she spoke in Palos Heights, Berwyn and Elmwood Park. On Tuesday after assisting at a luncheon for candidates given by the Illinois League of Republican women at the LaSalle hotel and a tea also for candidates given by the National Republican Women's club of Chicago she will go to Milwaukee for an evening meeting. On Friday Mrs. Van der Vries will be an honor guest at the luncheon of the West Suburban Woman's club and later she will speak to Republican women of New Trier township at headquarters in Wilmette. On Saturday there will be mass meetings in the cities of Chicago Heights, Calumet City and other towns in the southern part of Cook county.

Herring 'Hot Dogs'

You have never lived to the full until you have eaten an ersatz hot dog in Berlin. Meat is closely rationed so the hot dog bun contains no frankfurter but instead a cold salt herring. Not bad, not bad. But not so good.

DO YOU LIKE HORSE BACK RIDING?

If the answer is yes — come over to see us.

Right here in your very midst is one of the nicest places you have ever seen. Modern — clean — sanitary and attractive buildings.

Large fenced in track (if you are timid) illuminated for night riding.

Or maybe you might want to go up the famous trail that crosses our front lawn. Miles and miles of it (no highway riding) through the dense forests and running parallel with the river for quite a distance.

Go to Wheeling if you like — see Dams 1 and 2 — visit the big CCC camp. Or you can ride south and go all the way to North avenue.

Our horses have been carefully selected to meet the variable demand. Everyone of them is as safe as sitting in your favorite chair. They are well fed — well cleaned and properly equipped for your comfort, pleasure and safety.

There is a pleasant, nicely furnished club room affording relaxation before or after the ride — powder room for ladies. The atmosphere is refined but not snooty. You'll be agreeably surprised however, to find a noticeable absense of the undesirable features usually connected with a riding stable.

Visit us — even if you don't ride and tell us if you think we have exaggerated. You'll find our rates are more modest, too, than you might expect them to be.

100% Laugh Show At Des Plaines Sunday

The happy combination of "I Love You Again" and "The Great McGinty" constitutes one of the best all-laugh shows ever presented at the Des Plaines Theatre. Opening on Sunday for a three day run, "I Love You Again" co-stars the screen's favorite man-and-wife team, William Powell and Myrna Loy. Frank McHugh and Edmund Lowe are also prominent in the cast. "The Great McGinty" is Brian Donlevy, with Muriel Angelus and Akim Tamiroff sharing featured billing.

The newest "Maisie" hit heads the double feature program now showing at the Des Plaines Theatre. Titled, "Gold Rush Maisie," this excellent comedy-drama brings Ann Sothern back to the screen in the role that made her famous. Lee Bowman, Slim Summerville and Virginia Weidler are featured. "Sporting Blood" co-starring Maureen O'Sullivan and Robert Young completes the current double bill. An added attraction this week is the latest issue of "The March of Time," "Gateways to Panama," presenting a comprehensive study of U. S. defenses in the Caribbean.

Walt Disney Gives Star Part To 'Boy' This Time In 'Pinocchio' At Catlow

The public is to meet Pinocchio, Walt Disney's latest "find" at the Catlow Theatre on Friday and Saturday.

Always wanting to be fair, Disney has given the starring part in his second full-length production, "Pinocchio," to a boy, inasmuch as he followed a "ladies first" policy and made his first feature, "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" around a girl.

Pinnochio also answers to the name of "Little Woodenhead," as he is supposedly carved out of pine. However, as he comes to the screen in Technicilor through the medium of animation, he is capable of doing anything at all, and for that reason the audience will see him brought to life by beautiful Blue Fairy.

Plunged into the world without any armour of experience whatsoever, Pinocchio displays a sublime innocence and cannot tell right from wrong for the life of him. All of which precipitates him into one colorful scrape after another, before he earns the right to become a real boy.

"Pinocchio" is released by RKO Radio.

Through the medium of a motion picture, it is possible to see some highlights of the internationally famous honeymooner's rendezvous, Niagara Falls.

The romantic spot is a prominent background in "Lucky Partners," RKO Radio's laugh- and love hit, coming to the Catlow Theatre on Sunday and Monday, to which Ronald Colman takes Ginger Rogers on a make-believe honeymoon—a situation which results from a strange partnership in a sweepstakes ticket.

Spring Byington, Jack Carson, Cecelia Loftus, Harry Davenport, and Hugh O'Connell are prominently featured in Colman and Miss Rogers' support in "Lucky Partners."

If you like the down-to-earth comedy of Bob Burns and the home-spun philosophy of radio's Uncle Ezra, he of the powerful little five-watter down in Rosedale, and if you like a little rowdy goings on, such as you might find at a hill-billy hoe-down, and if your ear is turned to good old-fashioned mountain music, then by all means go over to the Catlow Theatre and have yourself a grand time seeing "Comin' Round the Mountain," on Tuesday.

Double featured on Tuesday with "Comin' Round the Mountain," is "Millionaires in Prison," starring Lee Tracy with Linda Hayes, Raymond Walburn, Morgan Conway and Truman Bradley.

"All This, And Heaven Too" Brings Beloved Novel To The Screen

In line with its policy of presenting the finest of the new crop of film entertainment, the Palatine Theatre will show "All This And Heaven, Too," Warner Bros. picturization of the sensationally successful Rachel Field novel. Bette Davis and Charles Boyer are costarred in the film, which plays next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

As one of the most important pictures on the 1940 schedule, Warner Bros. have produced "All This, And Heaven Too" on a lavish scale, sparing no efforts in making the brilliant, absorbing novel come to vibrant life on the screen.

Lasting two hours and twenty minutes, the picture will be given special emphasis with a single showing each evening of the three nights at eight o'clock. The picture will also have added shorts. The management has also arranged to give the election results at intervals during the performance on election night.

Five villains add to the excitement — and fun — of Walt Disney's second full length production, "Pinocchio," which is the feature attraction this Thursday, Friday, Saturday.

The evil quintet includes a whale, a fox, a coachman, and a puppet master, and all of them concentrate on making life hectic for little Pinochio, an engaging marionette brought to life by a kindly fairy.

Even a modern debutant would find it difficult dressing to compete with the elaborate wardrobe of a feminine charmer of 100 years ago, as Adrian, famous Hollywood fashion designer, proved in "Pride and Prejudice," picturization of Jane Austen's romantic comedy, starring Greer Garson and Laurence Olivier, playing Sunday and Monday.

In his latest laugh-filled comedy, "Saps At Sea," Hal Roach presents those master comics, Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy as a pair of testers in a horn factory. This hilariously funny picture was directed by Gordon Douglas and will be shown Sunday and Monday.

BEANS! PEAS! CORN! ALL YOU CAN GRAB AT SKOKIE-DUNDEE

An accident reminiscent of the grape truck that tipped over a year or two ago, east of Arlington Heights, took place last Tuesday evening near the junction of Skokie and Dundee rds.

County police, traveling their beat on Skokie rd. that evening, came upon a truck of the Meyers Transport Co., Chicago, at the aforementioned junction with the sides split open. Cans of various sizes and containing various fruits and vegetables were strewn about the highway.

It is not known just how many people restocked their pantries from this collection but it is well remembered how much grape wine was "home brewed" after the grape truck incident of a couple of years ago.

'HIDE AND SEEK' DRIVER IS FOUND BY CHICAGOAN

A Marengo driver, Martha Larson, hiding beside a large transport truck at the junction of rtes. 45 and 72 Friday afternoon was found by a Chicago motorist, Lyle Wallace.

The truck had stopped at that junction with the westbound Larson car pulling into the outer lane. Wallace, traveling north on 45, and with the Larson car hidden from his view, struck the Marengo auto as it started across the road. Wallace suffered numerous cuts and bruises.

MUTINY BREAKS OUT IN OLDSMOBILE CARAVAN

To anyone examining merely the surface of an accident at the junction of rtes. 45 and 62 Friday afternoon it would appear that mutiny broke out in an Oldsmobile auto caravan.

The drivers of three units of the caravan let their eyes stray to a damaged car on the highway with the driver of car no. 1 slowing down. The other two brand new cars proceeded to play tag with each other, doing considerable damage to the fronts and rears of the vehicles.

85-1 SHOT WINS AT CUMBERLAND-LAWRENCE

An eighty-five to one shot owned by the Cumberland-Lawrence stables won a match last Monday afternoon at the road junction by the stables.

Harold Halverer of Franklin Park was driving his chariot south behind 85 powerful horses when, at the junction of Cumberland and Lawrence ave., a lone horse of the Cumberland - Lawrence stables walked across the road. Halverer attempted to avoid hitting the stray animal and landed in the ditch. Injuries were not sustained by the motorist.

STOP! START! STOPPED!

A Chicago motorist, Miss P. M. Purvis, stopped for the stop sign Sunday afternoon at the junction of Greenwood and Glenview roads, started across the highway, and then was stopped by another autoist, George Butzon, of Glenview. Miss Purvis was traveling south while the other driver had been going west.

DES PLAINES AUTOIST INVOLVED AT RAND-CENTRAL

A Des Plaines resident, Paul Janez, was involved early Sunday morning in an accident at the junction of Rand and Central rds., but suffered no injury.

Janez, traveling west on Central, stated that fog hid the south bound car of John Weis of Wilmette. The collision damaged both cars but none of the occupants were injured.

STUMBLES ON STEPS OF GRAND STAND; SUES ARLINGTON PARK FOR $10,000

She states she was descending a stairway to the main floor when she caught her foot in some debris on the stairs and fell and injured herself seriously.

TWO KINDS OF CURVES; CHICAGOAN FAILS TO OBSERVE THIS ONE

It Happened Here

They came to cut down his tree and the squirrel was indignant; he scampered up the trunk and lodged himself in his favorite crotch where he had always been secure. "Cute little fellow," said the man with the axe. Snowy white chips and golden brown leaves in a brushpile give a woodsy accent to the yard. October does such gracious things as allowing the crab tree to remember its flowering as the scattering leaves hang in the sunlight delicately pink and dream like; it also adds an extra pinch of fire to the zinnias so that the sober garden has a touch of witchery. Above the ringing of the ax comes a familiar, nostalgic call and a wedge of geese flies over, their wild honking above the city roofs a splendid challenge and bugle call . . . Dead trees must come down, and trees that cumber the ground; the squirrel's tree is gone and place where it stood is smoothed over like a flower bed and there is nothing to mark its going but a vacant place in the sky where a watcher may count the lonely stars . . . The teacher who finished her registrar's duty on draft day stepped out of the auditorium and almost on to a little colored child with her eyes glued to the crack with fascinated curiosity. "Teach—" she quavered, "be you goin' to war?" Being reassured, the mite returned to her crack hoping for one small glimpse of the horrors of the draft . . . Grandma had just returned from the hospital and Betsy took over, running in to grandma's house next door with frequent admonitions. "Grandma, my mother says you shouldn't work so hard"—"My mother says you should stay in bed—What are you going to do now, grandma?"—"Well," said grandma, defensively, trying to hide the scrub rag, "I thot I would go to bed." "With that, grandma?" said Betsy, sharp eyes on the rag. "I wish you'd call your daughter off," said grandma, plaintively. "I don't dare call a scrub rag my own." . . . The cardinal bathes in a bowl of yellow leaves, he preens himself on the golden bough above and then sits on the tail of the feeding station and lets the rising sun bathe him in light, and he is, without doubt, the cock of the morning.

100% Laugh Show At Des Plaines Sunday

The happy combination of "I Love You Again" and "The Great McGinty" constitutes one of the best all-laugh shows ever presented at the Des Plaines Theatre. Opening on Sunday for a three day run, "I Love You Again" co-stars the screen's favorite man-and-wife team, William Powell and Myrna Loy. Frank McHugh and Edmund Lowe are also prominent in the cast. "The Great McGinty" is Brian Donlevy, with Muriel Angelus and Akim Tamiroff sharing featured billing.

The newest "Maisie" hit heads the double feature program now showing at the Des Plaines Tneatre. Titled, "Gold Rush Maisie," this excellent comedy-drama brings Ann Sothern back to the screen in the role that made her famous. Lee Bowman, Slim Summerville and Virginia Weidler are featured. "Sporting Blood" co-starring Maureen O'Sullivan and Robert Young completes the current double bill. An added attraction this week is the latest issue of "The March of Time," "Gateways to Panama," presenting a comprehensive study of U. S. defenses in the Caribbean.

Walt Disney Gives Star Part To 'Boy' This Time In 'Pinocchio' At Catlow

The public is to meet Pinocchio, Walt Disney's latest "find" at the Catlow Theatre on Friday and Saturday.

Always wanting to be fair, Disney has given the starring part in his second full-length production, "Pinocchio," to a boy, inasmuch as he followed a "ladies first" policy and made his first feature, "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" around a girl.

Pinnochio also answers to the name of "Little Woodenhead," as he is supposedly carved out of pine. However, as he comes to the screen in Technicilor through the medium of animation, he is capable of doing anything at all, and for that reason the audience will see him brought to life by beautiful Blue Fairy.

Plunged into the world without any armour of experience whatsoever, Pinocchio displays a sublime innocence and cannot tell right from wrong for the life of him. All of which precipitates him into one colorful scrape after another, before he earns the right to become a real boy.

"Pinocchio" is released by RKO Radio.

Through the medium of a motion picture, it is possible to see some highlights of the internationally famous honeymooner's rendezvous, Niagara Falls.

The romantic spot is a prominent background in "Lucky Partners," RKO Radio's laugh- and love hit, coming to the Catlow Theatre on Sunday and Monday, to which Ronald Colman takes Ginger Rogers on a make-believe honeymoon—a situation which results from a strange partnership in a sweepstakes ticket.

Spring Byington, Jack Carson, Cecelia Loftus, Harry Davenport, and Hugh O'Connell are prominently featured in Colman and Miss Rogers' support in "Lucky Partners."

If you like the down-to-earth comedy of Bob Burns and the home-spun philosophy of radio's Uncle Ezra, he of the powerful little five-watter down in Rosedale, and if you like a little rowdy goings on, such as you might find at a hill-billy hoe-down, and if your ear is turned to good old-fashioned mountain music, then by all means go over to the Catlow Theatre and have yourself a grand time seeing "Comin' Round the Mountain," on Tuesday.

Double featured on Tuesday with "Comin' Round the Mountain," is "Millionaires in Prison," starring Lee Tracy with Linda Hayes, Raymond Walburn, Morgan Conway and Truman Bradley.

"All This, And Heaven Too" Brings Beloved Novel To The Screen

In line with its policy of presenting the finest of the new crop of film entertainment, the Palatine Theatre will show "All This And Heaven, Too," Warner Bros. picturization of the sensationally successful Rachel Field novel. Bette Davis and Charles Boyer are costarred in the film, which plays next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

As one of the most important pictures on the 1940 schedule, Warner Bros. have produced "All This, And Heaven Too" on a lavish scale, sparing no efforts in making the brilliant, absorbing novel come to vibrant life on the screen.

Lasting two hours and twenty minutes, the picture will be given special emphasis with a single showing each evening of the three nights at eight o'clock. The picture will also have added shorts. The management has also arranged to give the election results at intervals during the performance on election night.

Five villains add to the excitement — and fun — of Walt Disney's second full length production, "Pinocchio," which is the feature attraction this Thursday, Friday, Saturday.

The evil quintet includes a whale, a fox, a coachman, and a puppet master, and all of them concentrate on making life hectic for little Pinochio, an engaging marionette brought to life by a kindly fairy.

Even a modern debutant would find it difficult dressing to compete with the elaborate wardrobe of a feminine chirmer of 100 years ago, as Adrian, famous Hollywood fashion designer, proved in "Pride and Prejudice," picturization of Jane Austen's romantic comedy, starring Greer Garson and Laurence Olivier, playing Sunday and Monday.

In his latest laugh-filled comedy, "Saps At Sea," Hal Roach presents those master comics, Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy as a pair of testers in a horn factory. This hilariously funny picture was directed by Gordon Douglas and will be shown Sunday and Monday.

Around the County

BEANS! PEAS! CORN! ALL YOU CAN GRAB AT SKOKIE-DUNDEE

An accident reminiscent of the grape truck that tipped over a year or two ago, east of Arlington Heights, took place last Tuesday evening near the junction of Skokie and Dundee rds.

County police, traveling their beat on Skokie rd. that evening, came upon a truck of the Meyers Transport Co., Chicago, at the aforementioned junction with the sides split open. Cans of various sizes and containing various fruits and vegetables were strewn about the highway.

It is not known just how many people restocked their pantries from this collection but it is well remembered how much grape wine was "home brewed" after the grape truck incident of a couple of years ago.

'HIDE AND SEEK' DRIVER IS FOUND BY CHICAGOAN

A Marengo driver, Martha Larson, hiding beside a large transport truck at the junction of rtes. 45 and 72 Friday afternoon was found by a Chicago motorist, Lyle Wallace.

The truck had stopped at that junction with the westbound Larson car pulling into the outer lane. Wallace, traveling north on 45, and with the Larson car hidden from his view, struck the Marengo auto as it started across the road. Wallace suffered numerous cuts and bruises.

MUTINY BREAKS OUT IN OLDSMOBILE CARAVAN

To anyone examining merely the surface of an accident at the junction of rtes. 45 and 62 Friday afternoon it would appear that mutiny broke out in an Oldsmobile auto caravan.

The drivers of three units of the caravan let their eyes stray to a damaged car on the highway with the driver of car no. 1 slowing down. The other two brand new cars proceeded to play tag with each other, doing considerable damage to the fronts and rears of the vehicles.

85-1 SHOT WINS AT CUMBERLAND-LAWRENCE

An eighty-five to one shot owned by the Cumberland-Lawrence stables won a match last Monday afternoon at the road junction by the stables.

Harold Halverer of Franklin Park was driving his chariot south behind 85 powerful horses when, at the junction of Cumberland and Lawrence ave., a lone horse of the Cumberland - Lawrence stables walked across the road. Halverer attempted to avoid hitting the stray animal and landed in the ditch. Injuries were not sustained by the motorist.

STOP! START! STOPPED!

A Chicago motorist, Miss P. M. Purvis, stopped for the stop sign Sunday afternoon at the junction of Greenwood and Glenview roads, started across the highway, and then was stopped by another autoist, George Butzon, of Glenview. Miss Purvis was traveling south while the other driver had been going west.

DES PLAINES AUTOIST INVOLVED AT RAND-CENTRAL

A Des Plaines resident, Paul Janez, was involved early Sunday morning in an accident at the junction of Rand and Central rds., but suffered no injury.

Janez, traveling west on Central, stated that fog hid the south bound car of John Weis of Wilmette. The collision damaged both cars but none of the occupants were injured.

STUMBLES ON STEPS OF GRAND STAND; SUES ARLINGTON PARK FOR $10,000

Marion Parentau has filed suit in Superior court against the Arlington Park Jockey club, for $10,000 damages for injuries allegedly sustained in their grand stand, July 6. She states she was descending a stairway to the main floor when she caught her foot in some debris on the stairs and fell and injured herself seriously.

TWO KINDS OF CURVES; CHICAGOAN FAILS TO OBSERVE THIS ONE

Anthony Wayne, Chicago, while traveling south on Higgins near rte. 58 Sunday morning, failed to see a curve in the road and ended in the ditch. Wayne was taken to the Palatine hospital by Ben Meyers of Arlington Heights, where he was treated for cuts and bruises.

SEEKS AUTO DAMAGES

Arthur V. Boyce has sued Fred Goldsmitth in Superior court for $5,000 damages for injuries in an automobile accident June 27 in Lake county. He states they were driving in opposite directions on Route 12 near Lake Zurich when defendant's car hit his car and wrecked it. He was thrown against the steering wheel and seriously injured.

FILES BANKRUPTCY

A voluntary petition in bankruptcy has been filed in the United States district court by Emil Tueglaff, of Arlington Heights. He lists $779 liabilities and $117 assets.

PATENTS GRANTED

Patents have just been granted to:

Louis Keiscovitz, of Park Ridge, for a flexible siding material. He has assigned it to the Rubberoid Co., of New York, N. Y.

WILLS FILED

PARK RIDGE

The will of the late Fred J. Gillick, who died in Park Ridge, Sept. 11, has been admitted to probate. It gives his $17,000 estate to his family largely. Sums of $500 each are given the Park Ridge schools for girls and the Community church.

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS

The will of the late Sarah K. Harth, who died in Arlington Heights, July 17 has been admitted to probate. It disposes of a $2,000 estate and distributes more money than the estate has. She gave $1,000 to Augusta Gustafson, of Chicago, $1,000 to Henry Gustafson, Chicago, $1,000 to her sister, Christine Springman, of Arlington Heights and $1,000 to Grace Reid of Benton Harbor, Mich.

It Happened Here

They came to cut down his tree and the squirrel was indignant; he scampered up the trunk and lodged himself in his favorite crotch where he had always been secure. "Cute little fellow," said the man with the axe. Snowy white chips and golden brown leaves in a brushpile give a woodsy accent to the yard. October does such gracious things as allowing the crab tree to remember its flowering as the scattering leaves hang in the sunlight delicately pink and dream like; it also adds an extra pinch of fire to the zinnias so that the sober garden has a touch of witchery. Above the ringing of the ax comes a familiar, nostalgic call and a wedge of geese flies over, their wild honking above the city roofs a splendid challenge and bugle call . . . Dead trees must come down, and trees that cumber the ground; the squirrel's tree is gone and place where it stood is smoothed over like a flower bed and there is nothing to mark its going but a vacant place in the sky where a watcher may count the lonely stars . . . The teacher who finished her registrar's duty on draft day stepped out of the auditorium and almost on to a little colored child with her eyes glued to the crack with fascinated curiosity. "Teache" she quavered, "be you goin' to war?" Being reassured, the mite returned to her crack hoping for one small glimpse of the horrors of the draft . . . Grandma had just returned from the hospital and Betsy took over, running in to grandma's house next door with frequent admonitions. "Grandma, my mother says you shouldn't work so hard"—"My mother says you should stay in bed—What are you going to do now, grandma?"—"Well," said grandma, defensively, trying to hide the scrub rag, "I thot I would go to bed." "With that, grandma?" said Betsy, sharp eyes on the rag. "I wish you'd call your daughter off," said grandma, plaintively. "I don't dare call a scrub rag my own." . . . The cardinal bathes in a bowl of yellow leaves, he preens himself on the golden bough above and then sits on the tail of the feeding station and lets the rising sun bathe him in light, and he is, without doubt, the cock of the morning.

S'Amuser.

Hallowe'en Carnival Has Large Attendance At Prospect Heights

Any doubt that Hallowe'en was in the offing last week was dispelled Saturday evening by the Improvement Association carnival which was held at the drug store and on the square. Without ghosts, hob goblins or witches, the committees in charge staged a real show, and the 328 who came, danced, played, lingered and just watched, seemed to have enjoyed every minute for Homer Torreyson was never called upon to stage his outdoor ghost story telling act.

With fully 75 per cent of the attendance coming directly from the community, there was little doubt but what the party would prove to be a huge success. Just what the attendance would have been had the committee started its campaign a week or two earlier is pure guesswork, but they showed excellent management when they secured the attendance expected.

In a trip around the village prior to visiting the Carnval twenty-six lighted pumpkins greeted the eye from the windows of twenty-six homes in the southeastern section of the community—truly an attractive sight to any strangers enroute to the carnival.

Prior to entering the hall of festivities one was greeted by the two Roys—Bolt and Hartke, assisted by C. F. Ledyard. Here all cash was taken, the tickets punched and hats and pins delivered to entering customers, and, before one could get either pin or hat in its proper place, they were buttonholed by either J. E. Meehan or G. H. Moritz who attempted to sell one the idea of playing bingo.

The Hungry Five were a little late in getting the dancing under way but once their rhythm came into action the dancers kept dancing until the wee hours of the morning. Their polkas went over with a bang and even the fellows who never dance couldn't resist the catchy music.

Dan Robertson, Bill Lancaster, C. K. Stehman, and Elmer Schettke, did an excellent job of entertaining in the tent. As barkers, Dan, Bill and Meehan demonstrated their high class ability. The hot dog stand attracted unusual attention, for here we found Jim Neilson and "Yip" Lederer standing behind the counter all dressed up in the regular cooks uniform,—high hats, aprons, and everything. One look at these gentlemen and you were unconsciously drawn to their counter.

Inside of the dance hall stood Homer Torreyson and Wayne Bowman who, as the official greeters, worked like trojans all night long. Behind the stove, standing for a moment, sitting the next, stood Billy Spears gleaming with satisfaction through pain, watching the entire show. Over in one corner, lost from view because of the crowds during the most of the evening, little Eddie Mueller and Frank Portman were demonstrating their expert ability of making big ones out of little ones. In the other corner, in the face of strong competition from the dance section, the coatroom and a jammed hall, Vince Shepherd demonstrated his expert salesmanship by inducing large numbers of those present to part with nickels for long green sheets of paper.

The fortunate Mrs. Roy C. Bolt, Mrs. Roy A. Hartke, Mrs. R. R. Swift, W. C. Peters and James Vondrak, were the lucky ones who walked home with the big turkeys, but the greatest yell of the evening came when Mrs. Dan Robertson finally beat Vince Shepherds infernal machine.

Old Man Good Will managed to keep a large number from accosting him by turning the tables on the great majority with whom he talked. Eddie Miller, Vince Shepherd, E. Dresselhuys and Norman Olsen almost collected. Norm finally did catch up with this mysterious gentleman after three attempts, and so did Mrs. W. C. Lancaster, but the first to win the honor and unique experience was Mrs. Roy Hartke. Mrs. Hartke caught the gentleman entirely off guard. She had been talking for quite some time with a number of the ladies and then moved over to the men. After a brief chat she said that she thought she would go right out and find this mysterious chap, and she started right then and there to nail her man, and she happened to nail the right man at the right time. She almost collapsed when the chap said "you win" and didn't really believe it until Wayne Bowman ushered her up front to pay off the award.

In the wee hours of the morning Dan Robertson took the floor and thanked the 124 still present, in behalf of the association, for their support and their good fellowship which had been evident all evening long. He also complimented Smith and Dawson for donation of the drug store and lumber, the Lauterburg and Oehler firm for the use of the tent, the Prospect Heights merchants for helping with the decorations, in the sale of tickets and fine cooperative spirit, and A. C. Rateike, for the pumpkins and the cornstalks which were used both inside and outside of the hall, for decorative purposes. Also Mr. Allord who permitted us to use his store for wardrobe purposes.

Sunday morning, after a few winks of sleep and with the aid of one or more alarm clocks, the committee members returned to the drug store and cleaned up, thereby ending the first of the community good will parties.

The Hartke's returned the Bolt's visit on Thursday evening and also enjoyed the turkey won by Roy Bolt at the same place. They really were delicious turkeys, and, of course, the hostess added the usual trimmings and made the occasions even more festive so a grand time was had by all.

COOKING SCHOOL RECIPES
by RUTH FISHER HOLBROOK

The following recipes were given at the Cooking school a couple of weeks ago, and at this time we would like to mention the fact that because of different commercials in the recipes they were automatically delayed.

Sweet Potato Surprise

2 medium sweet potatoes
1 tablespoon Wesson oil
2 tablespoons flour
dash of nutmeg
Salt to taste
Marshmallows (about 10)

Pare sweet potatoes and cook until tender. Drain and mash. Add the other inggredients, mix and set aside to cool. Form enough of the potato mixture around a marshmallow to conceal it. Roll each ball in Graham cracker crumbs. Fry in deep hot vegetable oil (375 degrees) until nicely browned.

One ofou r neighbors writes "If you wish to get ahead, use the one you have." This applies as much to knowing what to buy and where to buy it.

With the coming of cooler weather the kiddies should have some good warm food when they come home from lunch. Cocoa is just the thing—so easy to make, right in the cup. For something different toasted cheese sandwiches using cinnamon bread nd Velveeta cheese. The flavor harmony is the best. The children will ask for more and more. This is also a nice menu for adults.

Keeping up with the Hallowe'en spirit I will suggest this new pumpkin pie recipe. Our friends who dislike spices will particularly enjoy it.

Hallowe'en Pumpkin Pie

1 No. 2½ can pumpkin
2 cups honey
½ teaspoon salt
4 eggs
2 cups rich milk

Mix pumpkin and honey and cook down very thick over a low uame for about two hours. Beat the eggs, yolk and white together, add the milk and then the pumpkin and honey. Put in pie crust and bake.

If your custard recipe calls for 1/3 cup of white sugar, substitute the same amount of brown or maple sugar or ¼ cup of honey; your old recipe will enjoy a new flavor and you will receive many compliments.

And, by the way, make ice cream snowbals by dipping scoops of vanilla ice cream into cocontu.

You'll be sure to make a hit at your party if you serve egg fluff jelly roll. One cake will make six generous servings. It is rich and extra good—just ready to serve.

Dr. Maier Says Nation Must Turn To Christ

A day of financial, moral and spiritual reckoning lies ahead for America unless millions in the nation penitently turn to God, Dr. Walter A. Maier declared Sunday in his opening address inaugurating the eighth season of the coast-to-coast Lutheran Hour.

"No nation can flaunt the requirements of righteousness, justice and truth as continually and brazenly as we have," Dr. Maier asserted, "without suffering the consequences of its own folly. The rebellion against God in our country is greater than ever before, with atheism in some of our political trends, atheism in public education, atheism in a widespread philosophy and program which boasts that we can get along without God. Whoever is elected president next week should, as one of his first official acts, set a day of national repentence."

To combat anti-Christian destructive forces, Dr. Maier urged a voluntary conscription of the churches' use for Christ and the spiritual defense program for the churches. More than ever before, he asserted, the prime objective of the church forces in America is to preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

The failure to carry out this commission and the substitution of "current event" talks for sermons on sin and grace are largely responsible for the fact that in the ten years covered by the last census all large Protestant denominations except one were forced to record a decrease in membership. Dr. Maier referred to the Lutheran church which, according to government statistics, showed a gain of about 9% in a comparison of the 1926 and 1936 census.

The Lutheran Hour message will be heard every Sunday over more than 200 stations and in eleven countries. Spanish broadcasts include the West Indies, Central and South America and the Philippine Islands. Dr. Maier announced the intention to increase the scope of Lutheran Hour broadcasting until it becomes world-wide in extent, particularly through the addition of stations in Europe, Asia and Africa.

Hallowe'en Carnival Has Large Attendance At Prospect Heights

Any doubt that Hallowe'en was in the offing last week was dispelled Saturday evening by the Improvement Association carnival which was held at the drug store and on the square. Without ghosts, hob goblins or witches, the committees in charge staged a real show, and the 328 who came, danced, played, lingered and just watched, seemed to have enjoyed every minute for Homer Torreyson was never called upon to stage his outdoor ghost story telling act.

With fully 75 per cent of the attendance coming directly from the community, there was little doubt but what the party would prove to be a huge success. Just what the attendance would have been had the committee started its campaign a week or two earlier is pure guesswork, but they showed excellent management when they secured the attendance expected.

In a trip around the viliage prior to visiting the Carnval twenty-six lighted pumpkins greeted the eye from the windows of twenty-six homes in the southeastern section of the community—truly an attractive sight to any strangers enroute to the carnival.

Prior to entering the hall of festivities one was greeted by the two Roys—Bolt and Hartke, assisted by C. F. Ledyard. Here all cash was taken, the tickets punched and hats and pins delivered to entering customers, and, before one could get either pin or hat in its proper place, they were buttonholed by either J. E. Meehan or G. H. Moritz who attempted to sell one the idea of playing bingo.

The Hungry Five were a little late in getting the dancing under way but once their rhythm came into action the dancers kept dancing until the wee hours of the morning. Their polkas went over with a bang and even the fellows who never dance couldn't resist the catchy music.

Dan Robertson, Bill Lancaster, C. K. Stehman, and Elmer Schettke, did an excellent job of entertaining in the tent. As barkers, Dan, Bill and Meehan demonstrated their high class ability. The hot dog stand attracted unusual attention, for here we found Jim Neilson and "Yip" Lederer standing behind the counter all dressed up in the regular cooks uniform,—high hats, aprons, and everything. One look at these gentlemen and you were unconsciously drawn to their counter.

Inside of the dance hall stood Homer Torreyson and Wayne Bowman who, as the official greeters, worked like trojans all night long. Behind the stove, standing for a moment, sitting the next, stood Billy Spears gleaming with satisfaction through pain, watching the entire show. Over in one corner, lost from view because of the crowds during the most of the evening, little Eddie Mueller and Frank Portman were demonstrating their expert ability of making big ones out of little ones. In the other corner, in the face of strong competition from the dance section, the coatroom and a jammed hall, Vince Shepherd demonstrated his expert salesmanship by inducing large numbers of those present to part with nickels for long green sheets of paper.

The fortunate Mrs. Roy C. Bolt, Mrs. Roy A. Hartke, Mrs. R. R. Swift, W. C. Peters and James Vondrak, were the lucky ones who walked home with the big turkeys, but the greatest yell of the evening came when Mrs. Dan Robertson finally beat Vince Shepherds infernal machine.

Old Man Good Will managed to keep a large number from accosting him by turning the tables on the great majority with whom he talked. Eddie Miller, Vince Shepherd, E. Dresselhuys and Norman Olsen almost collected. Norm finally did catch up with this mysterious gentleman after three attempts, and so did Mrs. W. C. Lancaster, but the first to win the honor and unique experience was Mrs. Roy Hartke. Mrs. Hartke caught the gentleman entirely off guard. She had been talking for quite some time with a number of the ladies and then moved over to the men. After a brief chat she said that she thought she would go right out and find this mysterious chap, and she started right then and there to nail her man, and she happened to nail the right man at the right time. She almost collapsed when the chap said "you win" and didn't really believe it until Wayne Bowman ushered her up front to pay off the award.

In the wee hours of the morning Dan Robertson took the floor and thanked the 124 still present, in behalf of the association, for their support and their good fellowship which had been evident all evening long. He also complimented Smith and Dawson for donation of the drug store and lumber, the Lauterburg and Oehler firm for the use of the tent, the Prospect Heights merchants for helping with the decorations, in the sale of tickets and fine cooperative spirit, and A. C. Rateike, for the pumpkins and the cornstalks which were used both inside and outside of the hall, for decorative purposes. Also Mr. Allord who permitted us to use his store for wardrobe purposes.

Sunday morning, after a few winks of sleep and with the aid of one or more alarm clocks, the committee members returned to the drug store and cleaned up, thereby ending the first of the community good will parties.

Smaller Farms Could Help Farm Employment

"Some of our problems of rural unemployment would be solved if many capable farm operators recently forced off farms were permitted to return to farms of medium size either in place of inefficient operators or through the subdivision of large farm units."

H. C. M. Case, head of the agriculture economics department of the University of Illinois College of Agriculture, makes this prediction.

"Thousands of corn belt tenant farmers are concerned about the present trend toward larger farms. Recently tenants have met more competition for land. Thousands have been unable to rent desirable farms. Greater security for good tenants is an advantage both to landlords and tenants in establishing more profitable systems of farming in conserving the soil and farm improvements.

"A good farm-lease agreement is one of the best solutions to this problem," Prof. Case explained.

"The growing competition to rent farms of the past 15 years can be traced mainly to mechanized farming and to the advantage of operating larger farms. Young men who wish to become established as farmers and tenants trying to rent more desirable farms both add to the competition and bring insecurity to present tenants.

"Since farms are no longer increasing in numbers, except at the expense of cutting up existing farms, young men who wish to become established as farmers must compete directly with the tenants now on the land. If these young men are successful in becoming established, some of the older farmers must pass out of the picture. Although a number of farmers retire year after year, the number is not sufficient to open a way for all young farmers to become established. Furthermore many of these young men are related to the owners of the land, and consequently when they take over the land, it throws just that many tenant farmers into search for new farms for the succeeding year if they are to continue farming. Tenants in advanced years may well give attention to taking their own sons into equitable business agreements to protect their own security on the farms as well as help their sons become established on farms.

Case says tenants need not feel they must have a full line of mechanized equipment, especially on medium or small-sized units. Many tenants are successfully cooperating with other tenants by owning some of the more expensive pieces of equipment in common or by exchanging labor with some of their neighbors and thus avoiding a large outlay of money for the purchase of every piece of equipment used on the farm.

"When we change from the custom handling of many lines of farm work like silo filling, threshing and the use of corn huskers, combines and other expensive pieces of equipment, we will probably go too far, as far as the economy of production is concerned, toward every man's owning his own equipment. One alternative is the use of medium-sized equipment, or farmers can afford to own jointly for exchange the use of many of the more expensive pieces of equipment."

Tiny Cracks Cause Considerable Heat Leakage From House

One-eighth inch of glass really is not very much thickness to stand between the family and zero outside when a person stops to think about it, says Miss Virginia Weaver, home furnishings authority of the University of Illinois department of home economics.

While putting up storm windows is one quick solution to the problem, it's a good idea from the standpoint of family health and saving on heating bills, to tighten up all the cracks where cold air might leak in.

This check-up, according to Miss Weaver, should include the heating plant, the insulation, weather stripping for the doors, windows and window frames, roof, fireplace, basement and even the walls.

"If winter's snows melt from your roof more rapidly than from your neighbor's roof, chances are the insulation needs some attention. Less fuel and even a smaller heating plant is required when the heat is kept in the house through adequate insulation."

Sometimes cold air seeps in around the windows because the putty around the glass has fallen off—not because it was poor putty, but because the oil in the putty was sucked up by the unpainted wood around the window. When the oil left, the adhering quality of the putty was reduced. The only way to solve the condition according to Miss Weaver, is to paint the wood first, then the putty will remain on.

Air can be kept out between the sash and the casing with metal weather strips. If a knife blade will go in between the casing and the plaster, air will leak in there also. Furthermore water will seep in and if it freezes, will swell and do more damage. Careful home owners will take care of this problem by filling such cracks with a calking compound carried by paint and hardware stores, Miss Weaver said.

4-H Achievement Program, Nov. 9

The annual 4-H achievement program for all 4-H clubs in the northern part of Cook county will be held at the Maine township high school, near Des Plaines, on Saturday evening, November 9, announces Charles N. Glover, assistant Farm Adviser.

A program will be presented with each club taking an active part. Special music will be presented by the Maine township high school music department.

Recognition will be shown all those 4-H club members that have done outstanding club work in the county, as well as being given to those members participating in the county show and other contests.

This is one of the high points in our 4-H club year and should be of interest to the public.

Sweetheart of the Corn

WITH a sunbonnet for a crown, an armful of corn for a corsage, pretty Dorothy Henderson, of Newman, Illinois, reigns as Sweetheart of the Corn over the annual Corn Carnival of Tuscola, Illinois.

The sunbonnet crowning of the Sweetheart of the Corn came as the climax of the harvest season of Douglas County, one of the nation's chief corn-producing centers. In addition to her crown and a gold and silver bracelet wrought in a corn design, Miss Henderson won a college scholarship presented by the Kellogg Company.

AAA Expands Its Conservation Aid Program For Next Year

Marked headway in conserving soil and water resources in Illinois in 1940 has been made through the AAA grant-of-aid program, now called the conservation materials program, which is responsible for the farmers spreading more than 200,000 tons of limestone and 1,028,700 pounds of triple superphosphate.

Instead of the limestone provisions applying to just 37 southern Illinois counties and the phosphate provisions to 17, as was the case under the 1940 AAA program, the conservation materials plan is being extended to all Illinois counties in the 1941 program, according to Lee M. Gentry, State AAA chairman. Reasons for the expansion to other counties is the great interest in the plan, the increased emphasis on the use of limestone and fertilizers and the growing of soil-building legumes to enable farmers to get more conservation of their natural resources.

The grant-of-aid, or conservation materials, plan is simply a method whereby farmers may obtain grants of conservation materials in place of their cash conservation payments from the AAA, Gentry explained.

In addition to limestone and triple superphosphate, which farmers received under the 1940 AAA farm program, they will also be entitled to receive 20 percent superphosphate under the 1941 AAA farm program.

Grants of conservation materials to AAA participants is in line with the University of Illinois College of Agriculture's efforts to encourage more conservation. In addition to limestone spreading the five-point program includes pasture improvement, contour farming, additional seeding of legumes and grasses and tree planting.

Books For Winter Reading Listed For Whole Family

A big arm chair, a red-cheeked apple and a book for pleasure and profit can mean enjoyable evenings for Illinois families.

A guide to some good reading is the new little pamphlet on "Books for Pleasure and Profit" recently compiled by the University of Illinois College of Agriculture, reports Farm Adviser C. A. Hughes. The books suggested were selected by Miss Anne Boyd, associate professor of library science at the university.

Included in the guide are seven novels giving faithful reflections of life, seven books about real lives, nine books that spell adventure and seven books to chase one's cares away.

Romance and adventure, particularly appealing to teen-age boys and girls, are to be found in such books as "Here I Stay," "Lassie Come Home," "Dive Bombers," "Enchanted Vagabonds," and five other spellbinders suggested by Miss Boyd.

The "Pleasure and Profit" book list, based on the quotation "No man can read with profit that which he can not learn to read with pleasure," contains some good reading in magazines as well. The suggested magazines, together with information as to material contained and subscription price, are classified for children, young people and adults.

The guide list may be obtained free of charge from the farm adviser's office or from the Extension Service in Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Illinois College of Agriculture.

Best Huskers Seeking Title

Corn pickers will compete for the championship of Northern Illinois at a field day and corn husking contest to be held Thursday, Nov. 7, at the farm of Kenneth Furr, near Genoa, Illinois.

Liberal cash prizes are being offered and many winners in the various county contests have entered the race for the title of Champion of Northern Illinois. To increase the number of entries, prizes are being offered all contestants.

The contest is being conducted by Kenneth Furr and Associates of Genoa, and will be held on the Furr farm four miles north of Genoa, east of Route 23, between Genoa and Marengo.

Several thousand persons are expected to attend the event which will bring together the best corn pickers of northern Illinois. Adequate parking facilities have been provided by the committees in charge.

In addition to the corn picking contests, there will be extensive displays of farm machinery and field demonstrations of combines.

No admission will be charged.

Lunch will be served on the grounds. In the event of bad weather, at least 3,000 people can be sheltered.

Cattle Feeding May Be Affected By Environment

What effect the environment under which cattle are fed has on maximum profit will be explained as a feature of the cattle feeders meeting at the University of Illinois College of Agriculture, November 8, by R. R. Snapp, chief in beef cattle.

"Apparently feeds and feed mixtures are not the only factors to which cattle feeders must give attention if they are to make maximum profits," according to Snapp. "One factor, almost entirely overlooked by some feeders but which has proved to be highly important during the past summer, is the environment under which cattle are fed."

He explained that six lots of yearling cattle fed exactly the same ration for the same length of time at Urbana, but in different surroundings have varied as much as one-third of a pound of daily gain a head and have shown a difference of $6.22 a head in net profits.

Scheduled to begin at 10 a. m. at the beef cattle barn, ¼ mile south of Memorial Stadium, the forenoon session will give visitors a chance to observe 75 yearling steers used in fattening and grazing experiments during the past summer, as well as cattle to be used in experiments this winter. The latter include yearling steers which will be fed for the late winter market and both western and home-bred calves to be fed until next summer and fall.

Summer feeding and grazing experiments will be discussed by Snapp, F. C. Francis and W. L. Wright of the animal husbandry department from 11 a. m. to 12 noon at the livestock pavilion. Snapp will tell of feeding experiments for the coming year and discuss "The Effect of Environment Upon Gains Made by Steers Full Fed in the Dry Lot in Hot Weather;" Francis will give "A Comparison of New and Old Corn for Steers Which Have Been on Full Feed Throughout the Summer," and Wright will compare varieties of pasture for steers grazed without grain.

Following a box lunch at the pavilion, R. W. Griesser of the Chicago Producers' Commission Association will discuss the beef cattle situation; C. C. Culbertson, of the Iowa State College animal husbandry department, Ames, will tell about using pasture and roughages in fattening cattle for market, and D. H. LaVoi, Chicago, director of public relations for the National Livestock and Meat Board, will tell how to increase feeders' profits by increasing consumer demand. The meeting will adjourn by 3 p. m., Snapp said.

The reason for the college holding two cattle feeding meetings a year is that fall and spring are the two seasons when Illinois farmers are most interested in cattle feeding, Snapp explained. "Those who feed during the winter buy their cattle in the fall and sell them in the spring, while those who feed in the summer buy in the spring and sell in the fall."

Approximately 1,500 attended the meeting in April and Snapp estimates that between 1,000 and 1,500 will attend the November 8 meeting.

'Get Your Orders In Early' Advice To Tree Planters

Ten million trees will be planted by Illinois farmers before the end of next spring for erosion control, farm woodland or windbreak plantings.

"Reserve your orders early," advises J. E. Davis, extension forester of the University of Illinois College of Agriculture and State Natural History Survey, "if you want to be sure to have seedlings for early planting next spring."

Last winter a number of farmers sent in their orders too late to obtain suitable seedlings for spring planting.

Order blanks may now be obtained from local farm advisers or the university, Davis said. Orders must be made on the blanks furnished by the state division of forestry. If farmers make their orders in any other way, they will be sent a blank to fill out anyway.

The following species of one-year-old hardwood seedlings are available: black locust, green ash, white ash, catalpa, cottonwood, silver maple, bur oak, red oak and white oak, Osage orange, red gum, sycamore, tulip poplar and black walnut. Black walnut stratified nuts also are available.

One-year-old conifer seedlings of bald cypress, loblolly pine and short-leaf pine are available. Other conifers available include two-year-old seedlings of Jack pine, pitch pine and western yellow pine. Three-year seedlings of Douglas fir and of Norway spruce, and four-year transplants of red pine also may be ordered.

Davis explained that farmers cooperating in the AAA farm program may earn a maximum payment of $15 for planting any of these species of trees.

Tree planting is one of five practices being emphasized by the College of Agriculture to enable farmers to get more conservation of soil, water and human resources. The other practices are pasture improvement, contour farming, seeding of additional legumes and grasses and the spreading of limestone.

Smaller Farms Could Help Farm Employment

"Some of our problems of rural unemployment would be solved if many capable farm operators recently forced off farms were permitted to return to farms of medium size either in place of inefficient operators or through the subdivision of large farm units."

H. C. M. Case, head of the agriculture economics department of the University of Illinois College of Agriculture, makes this prediction.

"Thousands of corn belt tenant farmers are concerned about the present trend toward larger farms. Recently tenants have met more competition for land. Tnousands have been unable to rent desirable farms. Greater security for good tenants is an advantage both to landlords and tenants in establishing more profitable systems of farming in conserving the soil and farm improvements.

"A good farm-lease agreement is one of the best solutions to this problem," Prof. Case explained.

"The growing competition to rent farms of the past 15 years can be traced mainly to mechanized farming and to the advantage of operating larger farms. Young men who wish to become established as farmers and tenants trying to rent more desirable farms both add to the competition and bring insecurity to present tenants.

"Since farms are no longer increasing in numbers, except at the expense of cutting up existing farms, young men who wish to become established as farmers must compete directly with the tenants now on the land. If these young men are successful in becoming established, some of the older farmers must pass out of the picture. Tiny Cracks Cause Considerable Heat Leakage From House

One-eighth inch of glass really is not very much thickness to stand between the family and zero outside when a person stops to think about it, says Miss Virginia Weaver, home furnishings authority of the University of Illinois department of home economics.

While putting up storm windows is one quick solution to the problem, it's a good idea from the standpoint of family health and saving on heating bills, to tighten up all the cracks where cold air might leak in.

"If winter's snows melt from your roof more rapidly than from your neighbor's roof, chances are the insulation needs some attention. Less fuel and even a smaller heating plant is required when the heat is kept in the house through adequate insulation."

Sometimes cold air seeps in around the windows because the putty around the glass has fallen off—not because it was poor putty, but because the oil in the putty was sucked up by the unpainted wood around the window. When the oil left, the adhering quality of the putty was reduced. The only way to solve the condition according to Miss Weaver, is to paint the wood first, then the putty will remain on.

Careful home owners will take care of this problem by filling such cracks with a calking compound carried by paint and hardware stores, Miss Weaver said.

'Get Your Orders In Early' Advice To Tree Planters

Ten million trees will be planted by Illinois farmers before the end of next spring for erosion control, farm woodland or windbreak plantings.

"Reserve your orders early," advises J. E. Davis, extension forester of the University of Illinois College of Agriculture and State Natural History Survey, "if you want to be sure to have seedlings for early planting next spring."

Last winter a number of farmers sent in their orders too late to obtain suitable seedlings for spring planting.

The following species of one-year-old hardwood seedlings are available: black locust, green ash, white ash, catalpa, cottonwood, silver maple, bur oak, red oak and white oak, Osage orange, red gum, sycamore, tulip poplar and black walnut. Black walnut stratified nuts also are available.

One-year-old conifer seedlings of bald cypress, loblolly pine and short-leaf pine are available. Other conifers available include two-year-old seedlings of Jack pine, pitch pine and western yellow pine. Three-year seedlings of Douglas fir and of Norway spruce, and four-year transplants of red pine also may be ordered.

Davis explained that farmers cooperating in the AAA farm program may earn a maximum payment of $15 for planting any of these species of trees.

Tree planting is one of five practices being emphasized by the College of Agriculture to enable farmers to get more conservation of soil, water and human resources. The other practices are pasture improvement, contour farming, seeding of additional legumes and grasses and the spreading of limestone.

Rural Schools—A primary objective, of American legislators both federal and state, has been the establishment of a complete system of public education. One cornerstone of this system has been the country grade schools, originally provided for by the reservation for school purposes of one or sometimes two sections of land in each township granted by the government for homesteading and settlement. The Illinois Constitution makes it the duty of the General Assembly to ". . . provide a thorough and efficient system of free schools, whereby all children of this state may receive a good common school education." A "good common school education" has been interpreted to mean both elementary and high school training. The Constitution also provides that "there may be a county superintendent of schools in each county, whose qualifications, powers, duties, compensation, and time and manner of election and term of office shall be prescribed by law."

In carrying out these constitutional mandate as the General Assembly has caused the state to be organized into school districts, each having the power to levy taxes for the support of schools within it. A majority of these districts are rural and are so spaced that most families will be reasonably near a school house.

The affairs of a school district are conducted by a board of directors elected by the legal voters of the district. They are under the supervision of the county superintendent of schools. The functioning of rural schools represents a major achievement in local self-government, despite any shortcomings which the system may now have as a result of improved roads and methods of travel, revenue problems and a diminishing birth rate.

Rural Schools—A primary objective, of American legislators both federal and state, has been the establishment of a complete system of public education. One cornerstone of this system has been the country grade schools, originally provided for by the reservation for school purposes of one or sometimes two sections of land in each township granted by the government for homesteading and settlement. The Illinois Constitution makes it the duty of the General Assembly to ". . . provide a thorough and efficient system of free schools, whereby all children of this state may receive a good common school education." A "good common school education" has been interpreted to mean both elementary and high school training. The Constitution also provides that "there may be a county superintendent of schools in each county, whose qualifications, powers, duties, compensation, and time and manner of election and term of office shall be prescribed by law."

In carrying out these constitutional mandate as the General Assembly has caused the state to be organized into school districts, each having the power to levy taxes for the support of schools within it. A majority of these districts are rural and are so spaced that most families will be reasonably near a school house.

The affairs of a school district are conducted by a board of directors elected by the legal voters of the district. They are under the supervision of the county superintendent of schools. The functioning of rural schools represents a major achievement in local self-government, despite any shortcomings which the system may now have as a result of improved roads and methods of travel, revenue problems and a diminishing birth rate.

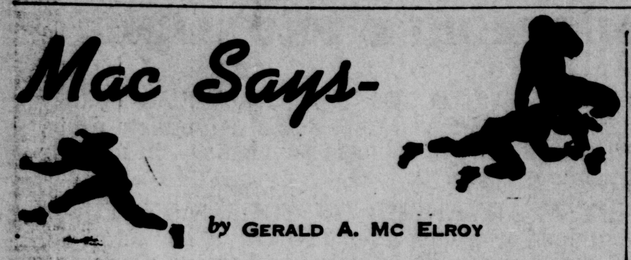
Championships In Two Conferences At Stake This Week

Mac Says-



by GERALD A. MC ELROY

The Wildcats of Libertyville are 1940 champions of the Northeast Conference. The worst they could do would be to lose to Leyden this week and finish in a tie for top position. If Bergstrom's boys whip Leyden Friday they will be undefeated and undisputed champs of the league. They beat a powerful Lake Forest eleven last Friday 18-12 in the most thrilling battle of the season.

Congratulations and Consolations

Congratulations, Art Bergstrom, on a great team and one which plays its best again the best opponents. Our consolation, Ed Lindenmeyer. It is tough to have as good a team as Lake Forest has turned out this year and not get at least a slice of the championship. The Scouts missed the title by so little last year, and this year it has been the same story. The only chance left for the Scouts is for Libertyville to lose to Leyden.

Leading Backs Meet

Without question the two best backs in the conference will enter into a dual for first honors of the year when Crystal Lake plays at Lake Forest Saturday. We refer to Lohman of Lake Forest and Rehberg of Crystal Lake. Lohman is leading scorer of the conference, a hard line bucker, a swell passer and pass catcher, and a smart team leader. Rehberg is the best open field runner in the conference who is a constant scoring threat on off tackle and reverse plays.

Warren Spoils Our Dope

Warren came through with a victory over Arlington and emerged from the conference cellar. It was the second time this season in 20 Northeast Conference games that we had a team defeated we had picked to win.

Final Picks

Our picks this week in the final week of the season are as follows: (1) Libertyville to beat Leyden and finish undefeated; (2) Arlington to drop their fifth straight to Niles; (3) Kelton's Warren boys to spoil Woodstock's homecoming; and Lake Forest to nose out Crystal Lake in the best game of the week-end. In the Northwest title game between Barrington and Northbrook we pick Mackey's Northbrook team by one touchdown.

May Open Cage Practice Friday

According to Northeast Conference rules no team may practice basketball before November 1. Friday thus becomes opening day for workouts at Arlington and other schools in the league. After all it seems like a rather funny rule in as much as all the schools engage in football.

An Unusual Break

Libertyville took advantage of breaks to beat Lake Forest Friday and one was really unusual. Lake Forest punted in midfield but Morris, Wildcat right end, blocked the kick. The ball struck Morris directly in the pit of his left arm forcing the arm down about the ball by reflex action. Morris did not realize at first that he had the ball but as soon as he did it was a simple task to sprint 50 yards to the goal line.

Resume Cage Series

Arlington and Palatine will resume an interesting basketball relationship again this year with a game at Arlington February 11. Pirates and Cardinals have played each other for years. In the beginning of this long series the Cards had the edge. Then for about six or seven years the teams met on such even terms that only one game was decided by as great a margin as five points. In the last two years the teams met Palatine took all four games with two of them the most onesided in the series. Last year Palatine and Arlington did not meet except in afternoon practice games. This year both will have strong teams. In fact Palatine still has four boys who were regulars on the team which beat Arlington twice in the 1938-39 season. Ray Hayes whose lightweights have usually enjoyed an edge over Palatine will this year be directing both of the Arlington teams.

Leyden Passes Offset Crystal Lake's Running Attack To Tie 13-13

It was Crystal Lake's running game versus Leyden passes Saturday and the result was a 13-13 tie. The Lakers had a big edge in the ground gaining department making 220 yards to Leyden's 77 by rushing but each time they took the lead the Eagles tied it up by passing for touchdowns.

Rehberg got away for a touchdown in the second period and place kicked the extra point to give Crystal Lake a 7-0 lead at the half. In the third period Leyden scored on a pass and Rehberg again got loose for a Crystal Lake touchdown. Leyden tied the score with a touchdown pass in the last quarter. Crystal Lake made nine first downs to Leyden's five.

Palatine Places Second In Cross Country With Riverside, Wheaton, York

Palatine traveled to Riverside Monday for a dual cross country meet but when they arrived found that Wheaton and York were also running. On a dual basis Palatine nosed out Riverside 28-26, beat York 35-20, and lost to Wheaton 35-20. On a quadrangular basis Wheaton was first, Palatine second, Riverside third, and York fourth. Langhoff, the most consistent Pirate runner, did not compete due to a bad cold. Cipri was the best Palatine runner, being timed at 10:40 for the two miles.

Friday Palatine closes the 1940 cross country season in a dual meet with Senn high of Chicago which will be run over the Palatine course.

Evanston Varsity Beaten By Palatine

Pirate Cage Squad Wins 31-22; Meet Dundee In Next Game

Palatine outscored Evanston's varsity basketball squad 31-22 in a practice game last Thursday at Evanston. It was the first of a series of practice games and scrimmages that Coach McElroy has arranged preliminary to the opening of the ceason.

With only six practice sessions and without the services of Hollinger, who was high scorer last season, the Pirates led Evanston all the way. The boys who appeared to the best advantage were those who made up the starting lineup. This quintent scored all the points as follows: Snyder, eight; DeBerge and Hahnfeldt, seven apiece; Schwolow, six; and Dick Hildebrandt, three. Hollinger has been out with an injured knee.

Play At Dundee November 7

Visual Defects

One-third of the applicants to drive school buses in five North Carolina counties were found to have visual defects. All except one of these rejected failed in two or more visual tests. Three applicants were found to be blind in one eye. Commenting on these figures, the Better Vision institute points out that there are 80,000 school buses in the United States and urges that in the interest of safety school bus operators should be given periodic eye examinations.

Gypsum Plaster Old

Many materials used in modern building are of ancient origin. Gypsum plaster is thought by many to be more modern than the time-honored lime-and-sand plaster, yet the Egyptians did some excellent work with gypsum plaster in King Tut's reign, and the Romans before Nero's day used clay tile for sanitary sewers. Metal lath, considered one of the newer building materials and widely used in modern construction, is this year celebrating its centennial.

Pupil Vs. Coach

"KEN" ZIMMERMAN

Friday when Woodstock celebrates their homecoming with a football game against Warren it will be "Kenny" Zimmerman, former Warren high backfield star, who will be coaching the Blue Streaks. Zimmerman's team will be out to beat his alma mater and his former coach Bob Kelton, who so ably developed him into the star who was able to win three varsity grid letters at Illinois. When Zimmerman graduated from Warren high in the spring of 1935 he was rated by the Cook County Herald as the best football player in the history of the conference up to that time.

Broncs Come To Life In Second Half To Trounce Grant, 14-0

by TOMMY KOUZMANOFF

For two quarters Grant's Bulldogs growled at Coach Clark's Broncos of Barrington last Saturday afternoon and just dared Clark's victory-bound gridders to cross their "0" stripe. But the Broncs were persistent so when the umpire had blown the game-ending signal on his horn they had rolled up two touchdowns and a pair of conversions to gallop off with a 14-0 triumph.

The win was the Barrington eleven's second Northwest Conference victory, pushing Grant down into the cellar with Antioch. A victory for Clark's lads this coming week-end over the high-riding Northbrook club will give them a 50% claim on the 1940 bunting.

'Twould be difficult to pick out a hero from the victors of last Saturday's fracas. The entire Barrington line battled like demons and the backfield clicked well, particularly on their intricate reverses. Barrington fullback, Stewart, drove hard all afternoon to be the standout.

Arlington Seeks To Stem Tide Of Four Defeats

Libertyville In N. E. and Northbrook In N. W. Look Best

by G. A. McELROY

The conference gridiron season closes in both the Northeast and Northwest conferences this coming week-end. Libertyville has a cinch for at least a share in the Northeast title after whipping Lake Forest but may find Leyden a stubborn foe in the final game. The Eagles played good ball in gaining a tie with Crystal Lake Saturday and will give Libertyville a whale of a battle though they do not have the man power to win f the Cats play ball.

The game between Crystal Lake and Lake Forest will decide the runner up position. The Lakers have been tied twice but beaten only once and a victory over the Scouts would clinch second honors for them and allow Libertyville to lose Friday's game and still have an undisputed title. However, Frank Lohman, Captain Batenic, Gyllenberg, and company will have a lot to say about where the Lakers finish. Lake Forest has a much better line than Crystal Lake and if they can throttle the wide sweeps of Rehberg will have the Lakers beaten.

Another Defeat?

Arlington appears to be in for another tough afternoon as host to Niles even though the latter is very short on man power. The Cards showed signs of becoming a good team in their opening games but successive defeats at the hands of stronger and more experienced opponents seems to have taken some of the fight out of the team. Arlington could beat Niles but there are too many ifs. Boys who were expected to star have not lived up to expectations, there have been injuries, and much of the burden has been borne by willing but inexperienced boys. Arlington will go next year but this is 1940 and the Cards will have to make an about face or suffer defeat number five in a row come Saturday.

Woodstock Seeks First Victory

Master Kelton will meet pupil Zimmerman as Warren invades Woodstock Friday. This will be one that both men would love to win and it would please the boys too as Woodstock has yet to win a game and Warren just got their first taste of victory last week at Arlington's expense. Warren will for the first time, meet a team of their own size and appear to have the edge.

Meet for Championship

The closing games in the Northwest Conference find title and cellar at stake. Barrington goes to Northbrook in hopes to preventing the latter from taking their second straight championship. Last year under similar circumstances Northbrook won 2-0. Both teams have not been defeated in conference games and are rather evenly matched though Northbrook rates the edge due to a superior backfield in which Santucci rates as passer and punter deluxe with Strauss and Klein exceptional ball toters.

Grant and Antioch with no wins and two defeats meet to fight for last place honors with Antioch likely to get them due to the inexperience of a first year football squad.

Libertyville Sure of Title As Lake Forest Tastes 1st Defeat

Taking advantage of the breaks a powerful Libertyville gridiron machine out-played hitherto unscored upon Lake Forest for an 18-12 victory and the assurance of at least a share of the Northeast Conference championship. The game was played before a big crowd at Libertyville Friday.

The Wildcats led all the way and were never in serious danger of being over taken. Recovering a Lake Forest fumble in the first period half back Gossell heaved a long 40 yard pass to left end Strand who caught the aerial behind the Scout secondary for the first score. Early in the second quarter right end Morris blocked a Lake Forest punt and fielding the ball on the fly ran 50 yards for the second touchdown. Just before the half the Scouts scored as two passed from Renz to Lohman, took the ball to the seven yard line, and Lohman went over on fourth down.

Libertyville struck quickly in the final period as Gossell and Whammond slashed through the Scout line for three first downs in a row and the latter plunged over from the five yard line. In the closing minutes of play Lake Forest scored on a pass from Renz to Gyllenberg, after moving into scoring position against Wildcat reserves.

The Libertyville line played outstanding ball, and aggressive work by the big boys in the forward wall was the deciding factor in the game. Lake Forest has a good line which had allowed but six first downs up until Friday, but it met more than its match in Bergstrom's big boys who average 185 pounds.

Burns Up Road, Car

Forest Dale Barron, mechanic of Jersey City, was arrested for speeding after a nine-mile chase in which he was said to have averaged 80 miles an hour, hitting 89 and taking a turn at 75. While he was being booked by police, it was discovered that the muffler of his car, which was red hot, had set the rear seat upholstery on fire.

Cardinals Fail to Score As Warren Wins, 6-0

Arlington went down into defeat again last Saturday for the fourth consecutive time after their two starting victories. Warren defeated them, 6-0. Yet in defeat they achieved some measure of satisfaction in knowing that but for some very tough breaks they might have won .

Warren scored in the first quarter to accumulate their six points which grew bigger and bigger as the game went on. A blocked kick which bounced back to exact midfield gave Warren their opportunity. A right end sweep for twenty four yards, two completed passes of five and ten yards, another right end run of nine yards took the ball to Arlington's two yard line where it was plunged over for a touchdown.

Warren threatened again in the second quarter as the result of a long pass, but this sortie was nipped at its beginning. Excepting for these two spurts Warren's net gains were of a minus quantity.

Arlington threatened most seriously in the second half. Penalties of 25 yards in the first quarter and of 25 again in the third quarter assessed against the Cardinals nullified some excellent efforts on the part of Arlington to get going and kept the ball in midfield. However they got a real drive under way in the fourth quarter and rushed the ball down to the ten yard line where they lost it to Warren. Pressure jitters got the Cardinals just when a touchdown seemed inevitable. It appeared that only a miracle could keep Arlington from tieing and possibly winning the game and that miracle appeared in the guise of over-anxiousness on the part of Arlington players and their last chance was gone.

Some excellent punting by Zelenko of Warren probably saved the game for them. Consistently kicking out of bounds. He gradually backed Arlington up in the third quarter, eventually dropping one out of the two yard line to throw Arlington almost completely on the defensive.

Morici was Arlington's most consistent ground gainer although both Bolte and Mayer reeled off some good yardage. Mayer also came through with some good defensive work. The Arlington line functioned much better than in preceding games, but for those two slips in the first suarter.

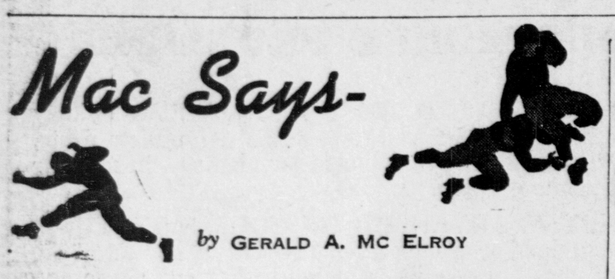
Championships In Two Conferences At Stake This Week

Mac Says-



by GERALD A. MC ELROY

The Wildcats of Libertyville are 1940 champions of the Northeast Conference. The worst they could do would be to lose to Leyden this week and finish in a tie for top position. If Bergstrom's boys whip Leyden Friday they will be undefeated and undisputed champs of the league. They beat a powerful Lake Forest eleven last Friday 18-12 in the most thrilling battle of the season.

Congratulations and Consolations

Congratulations, Art Bergstrom, on a great team and one which plays its best again the best opponents. Our consolation, Ed Lindenmeyer. It is tough to have as good a team as Lake Forest has turned out this year and not get at least a slice of the championship. The Scouts missed the title by so little last year, and this year it has been the same story. The only chance left for the Scouts is for Libertyville to lose to Leyden.

Leading Backs Meet

Without question the two best backs in the conference will enter into a dual for first honors of the year when Crystal Lake plays at Lake Forest Saturday. We refer to Lohman of Lake Forest and Rehberg of Crystal Lake. Lohman is leading scorer of the conference, a hard line bucker, a swell passer and pass catcher, and a smart team leader. Rehberg is the best open field runner in the conference who is a constant scoring threat on off tackle and reverse plays.

Warren Spoils Our Dope

Warren came through with a victory over Arlington and emerged from the conference cellar. It was the second time this season in 20 Northeast Conference games that we had a team defeated we had picked to win.

Final Picks

Our picks this week in the final week of the season are as follows: (1) Libertyville to beat Leyden and finish undefeated; (2) Arlington to drop their fifth straight to Niles; (3) Kelton's Warren boys to spoil Woodstock's homecoming; and Lake Forest to nose out Crystal Lake in the best game of the week-end. In the Northwest title game between Barrington and Northbrook we pick Mackey's Northbrook team by one touchdown.

May Open Cage Practice Friday

According to Northeast Conference rules no team may practice basketball before November 1. Friday thus becomes opening day for workouts at Arlington and other schools in the league. After all it seems like a rather funny rule in as much as all the schools engage in football.

An Unusual Break

Libertyville took advantage of breaks to beat Lake Forest Friday and one was really unusual. Lake Forest punted in midfield but Morris, Wildcat right end, blocked the kick. The ball struck Morris directly in the pit of his left arm forcing the arm down about the ball by reflex action. Morris did not realize at first that he had the ball but as soon as he did it was a simple task to sprint 50 yards to the goal line.

Resume Cage Series

Arlington and Palatine will resume an interesting basketball relationship again this year with a game at Arlington February 11. Pirates and Cardinals have played each other for years. In the beginning of this long series the Cards had the edge. Then for about six or seven years the teams met on such even terms that only one game was decided by as great a margin as five points. In the last two years the teams met Palatine took all four games with two of them the most onesided in the series. Last year Palatine and Arlington did not meet except in afternoon practice games. This year both will have strong teams. In fact Palatine still has four boys who were regulars on the team which beat Arlington twice in the 1938-39 season. Ray Hayes whose lightweights have usually enjoyed an edge over Palatine will this year be directing both of the Arlington teams.

Evanston Varsity Beaten By Palatine

Pirate Cage Squad Wins 31-22; Meet Dundee In Next Game

Palatine outscored Evanston's varsity basketball squad 31-22 in a practice game last Thursday at Evanston. It was the first of a series of practice games and scrimmages that Coach McElroy has arranged preliminary to the opening of the ceason.

With only six practice sessions and without the services of Hollinger, who was high scorer last season, the Pirates led Evanston all the way. The boys who appeared to the best advantage were those who made up the starting lineup. This quintent scored all the points as follows: Snyder, eight; DeBerge and Hahnfeldt, seven apiece; Schwolow, six; and Dick Hildebrandt, three. Hollinger has been out with an injured knee.

Visual Defects

One-third of the applicants to drive school buses in five North Carolina counties were found to have visual defects. All except one of these rejected failed in two or more visual tests. Three applicants were found to be blind in one eye. Commenting on these figures, the Better Vision institute points out that there are 80,000 school buses in the United States and urges that in the interest of safety school bus operators should be given periodic eye examinations.

Gypsum Plaster Old

Many materials used in modern building are of ancient origin. Gypsum plaster is thought by many to be more modern than the time-honored lime-and-sand plaster, yet the Egyptians did some excellent work with gypsum plaster in King Tut's reign, and the Romans before Nero's day used clay tile for sanitary sewers. Metal lath, considered one of the newer building materials and widely used in modern construction, is this year celebrating its centennial.

Leyden Passes Offset Crystal Lake's Running Attack To Tie 13-13

It was Crystal Lake's running game versus Leyden passes Saturday and the result was a 13-13 tie. The Lakers had a big edge in the ground gaining department making 220 yards to Leyden's 77 by rushing but each time they took the lead the Eagles tied it up by passing for touchdowns.

Rehberg got away for a touchdown in the second period and place kicked the extra point to give Crystal Lake a 7-0 lead at the half. In the third period Leyden scored on a pass and Rehberg again got loose for a Crystal Lake touchdown. Leyden tied the score with a touchdown pass in the last quarter. Crystal Lake made nine first downs to Leyden's five.

Palatine Places Second In Cross Country With Riverside, Wheaton, York

Palatine traveled to Riverside Monday for a dual cross country meet but when they arrived found that Wheaton and York were also running. On a dual basis Palatine nosed out Riverside 28-26, beat York 35-20, and lost to Wheaton 35-20. On a quadrangular basis Wheaton was first, Palatine second, Riverside third, and York fourth. Langhoff, the most consistent Pirate runner, did not compete due to a bad cold. Cipri was the best Palatine runner, being timed at 10:40 for the two miles.

Friday Palatine closes the 1940 cross country season in a dual meet with Senn high of Chicago which will be run over the Palatine course.

Pupil Vs. Coach

"KEN" ZIMMERMAN

Friday when Woodstock celebrates their homecoming with a football game against Warren it will be "Kenny" Zimmerman, former Warren high backfield star, who will be coaching the Blue Streaks. Zimmerman's team will be out to beat his alma mater and his former coach Bob Kelton, who so ably developed him into the star who was able to win three varsity grid letters at Illinois. When Zimmerman graduated from Warren high in the spring of 1935 he was rated by the Cook County Herald as the best football player in the history of the conference up to that time.

Broncs Come To Life In Second Half To Trounce Grant, 14-0

by TOMMY KOUZMANOFF

For two quarters Grant's Bulldogs growled at Coach Clark's Broncos of Barrington last Saturday afternoon and just dared Clark's victory-bound gridders to cross their "0" stripe. But the Broncs were persistent so when the umpire had blown the game-ending signal on his horn they had rolled up two touchdowns and a pair of conversions to gallop off with a 14-0 triumph.

The win was the Barrington eleven's second Northwest Conference victory, pushing Grant down into the cellar with Antioch. A victory for Clark's lads this coming week-end over the high-riding Northbrook club will give them a 50% claim on the 1940 bunting.

'Twould be difficult to pick out a hero from the victors of last Saturday's fracas. The entire Barrington line battled like demons and the backfield clicked well, particularly on their intricate reverses. Barrington fullback, Stewart, drove hard all afternoon to be the standout.

Arlington Seeks To Stem Tide Of Four Defeats

Libertyville In N. E. and Northbrook In N. W. Look Best

by G. A. McELROY

The conference gridiron season closes in both the Northeast and Northwest conferences this coming week-end. Libertyville has a cinch for at least a share in the Northeast title after whipping Lake Forest but may find Leyden a stubborn foe in the final game. The Eagles played good ball in gaining a tie with Crystal Lake Saturday and will give Libertyville a whale of a battle though they do not have the man power to win f the Cats play ball.

The game between Crystal Lake and Lake Forest will decide the runner up position. The Lakers have been tied twice but beaten only once and a victory over the Scouts would clinch second honors for them and allow Libertyville to lose Friday's game and still have an undisputed title. However, Frank Lohman, Captain Batenic, Gyllenberg, and company will have a lot to say about where the Lakers finish. Lake Forest has a much better line than Crystal Lake and if they can throttle the wide sweeps of Rehberg will have the Lakers beaten.

Another Defeat?

Arlington appears to be in for another tough afternoon as host to Niles even though the latter is very short on man power. The Cards showed signs of becoming a good team in their opening games but successive defeats at the hands of stronger and more experienced opponents seems to have taken some of the fight out of the team. Arlington could beat Niles but there are too many ifs. Boys who were expected to star have not lived up to expectations, there have been injuries, and much of the burden has been borne by willing but inexperienced boys. Arlington will go next year but this is 1940 and the Cards will have to make an about face or suffer defeat number five in a row come Saturday.

Woodstock Seeks First Victory

Master Kelton will meet pupil Zimmerman as Warren invades Woodstock Friday. This will be one that both men would love to win and it would please the boys too as Woodstock has yet to win a game and Warren just got their first taste of victory last week at Arlington's expense. Warren will for the first time, meet a team of their own size and appear to have the edge.

Meet for Championship

The closing games in the Northwest Conference find title and cellar at stake. Barrington goes to Northbrook in hopes to preventing the latter from taking their second straight championship. Last year under similar circumstances Northbrook won 2-0. Both teams have not been defeated in conference games and are rather evenly matched though Northbrook rates the edge due to a superior backfield in which Santucci rates as passer and punter deluxe with Strauss and Klein exceptional ball toters.

Grant and Antioch with no wins and two defeats meet to fight for last place honors with Antioch likely to get them due to the inexperience of a first year football squad.

Burns Up Road, Car

Forest Dale Barron, mechanic of Jersey City, was arrested for speeding after a nine-mile chase in which he was said to have averaged 80 miles an hour, hitting 89 and taking a turn at 75. While he was being booked by police, it was discovered that the muffler of his car, which was red hot, had set the rear seat upholstery on fire.

Libertyville Sure of Title As Lake Forest Tastes 1st Defeat

Taking advantage of the breaks a powerful Libertyville gridiron machine out-played hitherto unscored upon Lake Forest for an 18-12 victory and the assurance of at least a share of the Northeast Conference championship. The game was played before a big crowd at Libertyville Friday.

The Wildcats led all the way and were never in serious danger of being over taken. Recovering a Lake Forest fumble in the first period half back Gossell heaved a long 40 yard pass tc left end Strand who caught the aerial behind the Scout secondary for the first score. Early in the second quarter right end Morris blocked a Lake Forest punt and fielding the ball on the fly ran 50 yards for the second touchdown. Just before the half the Scouts scored as two passed from Renz to Lohman, took the ball to the seven yard line, and Lohman went over on fourth down.

Libertyville struck quickly in the final period as Gossell and Whammond slashed through the Scout line for three first downs in a row and the latter plunged over from the five yard line. In the closing minutes of play Lake Forest scored on a pass from Renz to Gyllenberg, after moving into scoring position against Wildcat reserves.

The Libertyville line played outstanding ball, and aggressive work by the big boys in the forward wall was the deciding factor in the game. Lake Forest has a good line which had allowed but six first downs up until Friday, but it met more than its match in Bergstrom's big boys who average 185 pounds.

Cardinals Fail to Score As Warren Wins, 6-0

Arlington went down into defeat again last Saturday for the fourth consecutive time after their two starting victories. Warren defeated them, 6-0. Yet in defeat they achieved some measure of satisfaction in knowing that but for some very tough breaks they might have won .

Warren scored in the first quarter to accumulate their six points which grew bigger and bigger as the game went on. A blocked kick which bounced back to exact midfield gave Warren their opportunity. A right end sweep for twenty four yards, two completed passes of five and ten yards, another right end run of nine yards took the ball to Arlington's two yard line where it was plunged over for a touchdown.

Warren threatened again in the second quarter as the result of a long pass, but this sortie was nipped at its beginning. Excepting for these two spurts Warren's net gains were of a minus quantity.

Arlington threatened most seriously in the second half. Penalties of 25 yards in the first quarter and of 25 again in the third quarter assessed against the Cardinals nullified some excellent efforts on the part of Arlington to get going and kept the ball in midfield. However they got a real drive under way in the fourth quarter and rushed the ball down to the ten yard line where they lost it to Warren. Pressure jitters got the Cardinals just when a touchdown seemed inevitable. It appeared that only a miracle could keep Arlington from tieing and possibly winning the game and that miracle appeared in the guise of over-anxiousness on the part of Arlington players and their last chance was gone.

Some excellent punting by Zelenko of Warren probably saved the game for them. Consistently kicking out of bounds. He gradually backed Arlington up in the third quarter, eventually dropping one out of the two yard line to throw Arlington almost completely on the defensive.

Morici was Arlington's most consistent ground gainer although both Bolte and Mayer reeled off some good yardage. Mayer also came through with some good defensive work. The Arlington line functioned much better than in preceding games, but for those two slips in the first suarter.
